ADVANCING NANKING TROOPS CAUSE OF CANTONESE RETREAT

No Serious Fighting Reported as Yet Between Northern and Southwestern Chinese Forces, But Movements to Shorten Lines Apparent —Anti-Japan Army Formed at Canton

HONGKONG, July 16 (AP).—Southwest China's second army beat a hasty retreat from the Northern Kwangtung City of Siuchow today in the face of a reported advance of Nanking troops.

The blowing up of an important bridge, it was reported despite earlier denials, spurred the evacuation, since communications were said to have been cut. Some advices said Nanking troops were expected to occupy Siuchow tomorrow.

HOLDING POSITIONS

Much of the second Kwangtung army was said to be holding positions between Kuntien and Thunghua. Some troops, however, withdrew to the northern suburbs of Canton, giving rise to reports that those regiments were deserting to Nanking.

With a fleet of airplanes, newly purchased from Japan, being assembled hastily at Canton, Generals Chan Chai-Tong and Li Chung-Jen formally assumed their posts as commanders of an "anti-Japanese army," formed in defiance of Central Government rebukes. Both seemed firmly resolved to fight, but their forces received a serious loss in the reported defection of the veteran politician, Hsiao Fu-Sheng.

REFUSES TO TALK

Hsiao reached Hongkong today, curtly refusing to talk. It was learned reliably, however, he had disapproved Canton's revolt against Nanking authority. His action served to revive rumors that Japan actually is supporting the southwest militarists, despite their anti-Japanese protestations.

Canton reports indicated there had been no serious fighting between Nanking and southern troops as yet, but it was evident the Nanking forces were advancing and the southwest armies retreating, to shorten their lines.

SPAIN ARRESTS MANY FASCISTS

Extreme Rightist Leaders Seized to Head Off Further Political Bloodshed

MADRID, July 16 (AP).—Spain, counting between 200 and 300 dead and perhaps 1,000 wounded in five months of recurring disorder, rounded up hundreds of Fascists today in an atmosphere of comparative peace.

Extreme Rightist chieftains and sub-chieftains were seized throughout the country to head off further political bloodshed such as followed the assassination this week of Jose Calvo Sotelo, Monarchist leader.

Arms and amunition were seized in large quantities.

RUMORS ADD TO TENSION

Tension was kept high by a train of rumors of possible military action, but all were denied by responsible resources and Madrid itself, was generally calm, since the February elections which put a Leftist Coalition Government in power showed 234 dead and 942 wounded.

Rightists, however, contended as many as 275 had been slain and more than 1,000 wounded.

In the past two weeks twenty-three persons have lost their lives and sixty-eight have been wounded

NOVA SCOTIA LOWERS TAX ON AMUSEMENTS

HALIFAX, July 16 (C).—A reduction in amusement taxes, amounting to almost 50 per cent, went into effect in Nova Scotia today. Announcement of the reduction was made last night by Premier Macdonald after a meeting of the Cabinet and representatives of the motion picture industry.

ASSASSINATED IN HOSPITAL

BUCHAREST, July 16 (CP-Havas).—Former Deputy Michael Stelescu, ex-member of the Fascist "Iron Guard," who rebelled against the leaders of that organization, was assassinated in hospital here today.

FULL SLATES IN MANITOBA

Between 135 and 140 Candidates to Be Named —Election on July 27

WINNIPEG, July 16 (C).—Between 135 and 140 candidates will be formally nominated tomorrow to contest the fifty-three seats at stake in the Manitoba general elections on July 27.

Tonight there were 125 candidates definitely in the race, with others expected to be named when nominations are formally received by returning officers in the ten-member constituency of Winnipeg and the forty-three other constituencies where voting takes place July 27.

In two constituencies — Rupert's Land and The Pas—voting has been deferred until August 21. Premier Bracken, head of the Liberal-Progressive Government, is member for The Pas, and Hon. E. A. McPherson, Provincial Treasurer, sits for Rupert's Land.

IN MOST CONSTITUENCIES

The Liberal-Progressive party will have seats in all constituencies outside of Winnipeg and five in Winnipeg. The Conservative party has named candidates in single-member constituencies and five in Winnipeg. The Co-operative Commonwealth Federation has nominated six in Winnipeg and eleven in other constituencies. Errick F. Willis, Conservative leader, has been nominated in Deloraine, and S. F. Farmer, C.C.F. leader, is one of the Winnipeg nominees.

NUMBER IN DOUBT

The number of candidates of the Social Credit League of Manitoba was still in doubt. The league has nominated fourteen candidates in single-member constituencies and expects to name five or more in Winnipeg. Others may be named in rural constituencies when nominations are received formally.

Other candidates in the field include one Communist, one Socialist, one Independent Farmer and five Independents.

HOTELS ENJOY GOOD BUSINESS

H. F. Mathews, Montreal, Expects August Trade to Double That of Year Ago

"It is more like old times," enthusiastically exclaimed H. F. Mathews, Montreal, general manager of Canadian Pacific hotels, yesterday at the Empress Hotel as he spoke of greatly increased business throughout the West. He is here on a regular tour of inspection.

Stating the company was pleased with the good convention business here, in addition to the increased tourist trade, the official reported that the mountain hotels were having their best business since 1929.

"Indications are that it will continue up into September," Mr. Mathews added. "Travelers are coming from all quarters of the globe. More Canadians are traveling, too, and they seem to have more money to spend."

PROSPECTS EXCELLENT

Although Mr. Mathews explained he would not go so far as to say business was double that of last year, the executive foresaw such a state by August. The Prince of Wales golf tournament in Banff in August is attracting more interest than ever before, Mr. Mathews said, and registrations indicated the entry would set a new record there.

QUEBEC CLOSES ITS AGENCY IN LONDON

QUEBEC, July 16 (C).—The Province of Quebec's Commercial Agency in London, England, has been closed by the Provincial Government as a measure of economy, it was announced today. The agency was under the direction of Dr. L. J. Lemieux and was maintained at an annual cost of $50,000. Quebec's cultural bureau in London will be maintained.

Unruffled When Assailant Aims Pistol

King Edward VIII, as he appeared yesterday when riding at the head of Battalions of Foot Guards, to whom he had just presented new colors, when a revolver came sailing through the air to fall under his charger's feet. It had been hit from the hand of a Scotch journalist by an unnamed woman as it was being aimed at His Majesty.

Mounted Officer Is Credited With Blocking Gunman's Vision

LONDON, July 16 (AP).—The sharp eye of an unpaid London policeman—a so-called "special"—may have prevented serious consequences of today's trouble on Constitutional Hill. The mounted officer, it was reported tonight, noted George Andrew McMahon in the crowd before the King passed by. Suspicious of his looks, he reined his horse in close to the curb and kept it there, partly blocking the man's line of vision.

The moment McMahon showed his revolver, the officer spurred his horse forward, putting himself directly between the pistol-wielder and the King, while other police, at the double-quick, closed in.

THOUSANDS OF MEN FIGHTING OUTBREAKS

TORONTO, July 16 (C).—New fires blazing in the Magami district were reported from Cobalt tonight as more than 3,000 firefighters throughout the province turned envious eyes to the Geraldton district, where rain aided fighters in bringing fires under control.

More than 200 men were fighting blazes in the Temagami area, centreing around serious breaks in Afton and Armagh Townships, west of the Temagami Lakes.

The first rain in more than a month brought relief to the Geraldton district, bringing safety to the little town several times threatened with destruction in the past week.

COMES JUST IN TIME

Rain came just in time. The night before flames swept to the very edge of the clearing on the south side of the town before a drop in the wind enabled fighters to control it for the moment. Small showers also fell in the Kenora and

French Government To Assume Control Of Bank of France

Officials Promise to Refrain From Using New Powers for Inflation—Vote on Bill to Nationalize War Industries Postponed

PARIS, July 16 (AP).—The French Government advanced through Parliament today a measure to give it control of the Bank of France. Officials promised, as the bill was approved by a Chamber of Deputies vote of 430 to 111, to refrain from using its new powers for inflation.

Other Government spokesmen declared the measure was intended to break the power of "200 families" which own but 170,000,000 francs in stock, while small shareholders hold 1,400,000,000 francs' worth.

TOO MANY OFFICIALS

On the other hand, Opposition Deputies criticized the number of functionaries on the proposed bank board, and assailed what they said was Government failure to provide a body more representative of the shareholders.

MAN DROWNS AT WEST VANCOUVER

WEST VANCOUVER, July 16 (C).—Ernest W. Baldwin, thirty-seven, drowned in the waters of English Bay today while attempting to swim from shore to a diving raft at this North Shore municipality.

Police reports state the man was last seen swimming towards the raft. He apparently suffered a cramp and sank. When he was missed two boys launched a rowboat and later recovered the body.

BRUSSELS PARLEY BEING ARRANGED

Conference Between Great Britain, France and Belgium to Precede Locarno Parley

PARIS, July 16 (AP).—Authoritative circles tonight reported a conference between France, Great Britain and Belgium at Brussels on July 22 virtually was assured as the result of a Franco-British compromise.

France, it was said, agreed to confine the conference to a simple "exchange of views," excluding any decisions concerning the Locarno problem itself.

The French Government also was reported to have promised not to ask for enforcement of the accord of last March 19, pledging assistance by Britain to France and Belgium in the case of a crisis.

INSTRUCTIONS WANTED FOR SILENCING COW

ROCKPORT, Mass., July 16 (AP).—The Rockport Board of Health ordered Herbert D. Gray to stop his cow from mooing today because neighbors complained they were unable to sleep. Gray said he would comply immediately with the order if the board sent his instructions.

REVOLVER POINTED AT KING AT HEAD OF MILITARY PROCESSION

Little Woman in Grey Knocks Loaded Weapon From Hand of Assailant to Send It Spinning Under Feet of His Majesty's Charger On Historic Constitution Hill

Scot Taken to Bow Street; King Rides on Unconcerned

LONDON, July 16 (C).—The stately pomp of a ceremonial military procession along Constitution Hill was interrupted dramatically today when a stocky, club-footed man in his thirties pressed through the crowd and aimed a revolver at the King.

The revolver, which was loaded, was knocked out of the man's hand and fell on the roadway beneath the feet of the horse which His Majesty was riding.

While the man who held it was seized by police the King rode calmly ahead as if nothing had happened.

A WOMAN IN GREY

A woman in grey, whose name was not made public by the authorities, was the heroine of the occasion. She knocked the revolver out of the hand of the would-be assailant and sent it spinning to the ground.

Police closed in promptly and seized the man. He was identified as George Andrew McMahon, a Scotsman aged about thirty-four, who had lived in London for many years.

McMahon, described as a journalist, was arraigned in Bow Street police court before Sir Rollo Campbell Gray. He was charged with unlawful possession of a firearm with intent to endanger life and remanded for eight days.

CREATES CONSTERNATION

The whole incident was over so quickly few of the thousands in the crowd knew what had happened. But the story quickly spread and consternation was felt throughout London and the entire country. Newspaper stands were rushed by eager crowds seeking to learn the latest details.

Mussolini Sends Congratulations To His Majesty

LONDON, July 16 (AP).—The Italian Embassy disclosed that Premier Mussolini telephoned in person to his charge d'affaires here, instructing him to call at Buckingham Palace immediately and convey Il Duce's "heartfelt felicitation on the escape of His Majesty the King from danger."

Duke Also Involved in An Incident

LONDON, July 16 (AP).—The Duke of Kent, King Edward's youngest brother, was involved today in an incident at Plymouth while the sovereign escaped a pointed pistol here.

While the Duke was inspecting members of the British Legion in Guildhall Square, a woman broke the deep police cordon and ran toward the Duke, apparently to shake his hand.

The former soldiers restrained her until police rushed forward to return her to the crowd, where she vanished.

IS SMOTHERED IN FOLDING BED

Edmonton Woman Meets Death in Strange Manner —Another Held by Police

EDMONTON, July 16 (C).—Police reconstructed tonight the circumstances surrounding the death of Mrs. Albert Phelan, whose body was found in a folding wall bed in her home today. Meanwhile, they held another woman in custody on a charge of manslaughter.

Miss Betty Hill, forty-six, was arrested when Mrs. Phelan's husband, a city fireman, arrived home and found the body of his forty-eight-year-old wife inside the bed and jammed against a wall. She died of suffocation.

RECONSTRUCTED THE CASE

As reconstructed by Robertson Sutherland, chief of detectives, the two women had been in bed. Police said they had been drinking. Miss Hill had got out of bed, said Sutherland, and reached for an article. The bed closed. Mrs. Phelan inside of it.

According to police, Miss Hill, finding herself unable to open the bed, had left the house and gone to a rooming-house in North Edmonton. She gave herself up when informed police were looking for her. She said she did not know Mrs. Phelan was dead.

GRANDMOTHER GIVES HER LIFE FOR CHILD

HOLLYWOOD, Calif., July 16 (AP).—A grandmother gave her own life to save her eight-year-old granddaughter from death under the wheels of an automobile, police reported today.

Mrs. Margaret Ray, sixty-six, could have saved herself on busy Sunset Boulevard, the police report said, but instead she pushed her granddaughter out of the car's path.

DENIES HER ASSOCIATION

King's Assailant Aided Woman in Crusade Against Capital Punishment

LONDON, July 17 (AP).—George Andrew McMahon, who today leveled a pistol toward King Edward, was a former associate of Mrs. Violet Van der Elst, noted crusader against the death penalty for crimes.

He gave evidence in King's Bench Division on March 25, when Mrs. Van der Elst was sued by a woman artist for the price of a picture she claimed she had ordered. McMahon said at that time he had helped her to write a book urging abolition of capital punishment.

McMahon also aided Mrs. Van der Elst in her election campaign for a seat in the House of Commons last November. She was an unsuccessful candidate for South Kensington.

The association between the two ended early this year. McMahon brought action against Mrs. Van der Elst in the Marylebone County Court on April 8, claiming £67 (about $335) as the price of hiring automobiles for use during the election campaign. The claim was dismissed, with costs.

It was reported that McMahon was formerly editor of Mrs. Van der Elst's magazine Humanity, a publication opposed to capital punishment.

The crusader, however, said today: "I don't know McMahon."

Is Killed in Plane-Boat Collision

GOLDFIELDS, Sask., July 16 (C).—Harold Fletcher Piette, thirty, is dead, killed almost instantly when the boat in which he was riding on Lake Athabaska was struck Wednesday by an airplane as it was taking off.

At the inquest last night, the coroner's jury exonerated J. F. Warren, pilot of the plane.

Warren was taking off in Nyman's Bay, directly into the sun. Neither he nor his engineer saw the boat. W. T. Smith, driving the boat, escaped with his life as did the third occupant, Sylvio F. Hamilton. Smith received painful injuries, but is not believed to be in danger.

GENEVA, July 16 (CP-Havas).—New Zealand informed the secretariat of the League of Nations tonight of its candidacy for a non-permanent seat on the Council.

CANAL PAGEANT BRILLIANT SIGHT

SEATTLE, July 16 (AP).—Seattle has had many illuminated and decorated boat parades but nothing to equal tonight's Mystic Shrine pageant in Lake Washington Canal.

Thirty-six gaily decorated entries —at least one representative of every kind of watercraft in the Puget Sound district, plus eleven elaborate floating floats and six decorated naval motor sailers were in the sailing order; schedule when a squadron of naval planes zoomed down over the Montlake and Seattle Yacht Club area to start the parade.

Shrindom's imperial divan were honor guests at the ten-mile-long parade from Lake Union into Lake Washington between tiers of special seats built to accommodate 30,000 spectators.

SPECIAL EFFECTS

Special lighting effects on canal sides and the Montlake Bridge and batteries of colored flood and spotlights were arranged to pick out and glorify the craft before the grand finale, a fireworks display.

Thousands of spectators lined the lake shores for hours ahead of the pageantry to get free vantage points from which to witness the spectacle.

Six Months' Production This Year Continues Material Progress, Both in Volume and Value—Recovery in Four Years Is Consistent

BRITISH Columbia's lumber industry made noteworthy gains in both the volume and the value of forest products during the first six months this year, according to Provincial records yesterday. Sixteen per cent increase in production, some improvement in prices and the employment of 25,000 men were encouraging elements in a period which also saw decided revival in construction and building contracts in British Columbia.

The official log scale for the six-months period between January and June, inclusively, was 1,254,000,000 board feet, compared with 1,081,000,000 board feet in a like period last year. In addition were the handling of 3,783,000 linear feet of poles and piling, production of 78,000 cords of wood, and the cutting of 658,000 pieces of hewn ties. Log exports dropped from 112,000,000 board feet to 90,000,000 board feet, indicating more home manufacture.

PRICE IMPROVEMENT

Price improvement was noted at several points, though with some fluctuation. Average prices had improved by about $1 per 1,000 board feet in most grades, it was said, with good demand for fir, and noticeable

REACH AGREEMENT ON FIRE SERVICE

Oak Bay to Pay Victoria $11,500 For Use of Equipment During The Year

The Victoria-Oak Bay fire fighting agreement was reached yesterday, when the latter council signed the necessary documents.

For $11,500 annually, Victoria undertakes to fight fires in Oak Bay. Although for the past five years, an agreement signed in 1931 has served, this year, because efforts are being made to build up a Greater Victoria fire department, only a one-year agreement was signed.

However, to insure coverage in case of fire after the contract expires in March, 1937, the Oak Bay Council will file application with Victoria within six weeks for an agreement extending the protection until 1938.

Skill Only Useful if Servant of Wisdom Says Rail President

Sir Edward Beatty Gives Address on Educational Aims and Development—Receives Honorary Degree From University of New Brunswick

FREDERICTON, N.B., July 16.—That wisdom was not the result of the accumulation of information, but rather of the ability to reason, and that "we must face the fact that skill can only be useful to the human race when it is the servant of wisdom," was emphasized here today by Sir Edward Beatty, chairman and president of the Canadian Pacific Railway Company.

He was addressing the convocation of the University of New Brunswick and a meeting of the Canadian Society of Technical Agriculturists. Sir Edward received the honorary degree of LL.D., from the university.

EDUCATIONAL TENDENCY

The tendency of educational development, Sir Edward said, had been in the direction of the creation of institutions of learning especially equipped to provide training in those physical sciences whose ambit had widened so greatly in the century of the industrial revolution. The growth of great centres of learning had not been permitted to prevent the continued life and growth of smaller institutions faithfully discharging their duty of keeping the lamp of learning alight.

"The test of the success of education in any country and in any period of human history will always be the same," Sir Edward said. "A public life directed purely to the end of the expression of the high ideals of a free people, and a private life ruled by the pursuit of those simple virtues which the human conscience knows instinctively to be good—these are the objects for which we try to train our youth."

THE NEEDED QUALITIES

The qualities needed for success were virtue, wisdom and skill. Canadians living in a country of great natural wealth could not blame any failure of external forces. Virtue, the moral qualities which form a nation's character, must come first. Wisdom must come next, "for it is from wisdom that we can learn how to carry out the commands of virtue by skill." There never was a time, Sir Edward continued, when wisdom was so badly needed. The development of skill imposed on Canadians the need of added wisdom such as our forefathers could never have foreseen.

Sir Edward cited aviation, radio and moving pictures as examples, and in replying to those who attempted to decry the increase in human skill, said: "It is a basic part of faith in humanity, that we should believe that human beings can still learn to use new powers for good and not for evil."

A MAJOR ROLE

Institutions such as the University of New Brunswick could play a major role in forming the wisdom of the human race by encouraging their members in the field of ethics and reason. Sir Edward concluded this portion of his address by saying: "In the field of education I am convinced that we can already see that we erred in our concentration of effort on the development of skill, without a sufficient realization of the added wisdom which the use of added skill requires.

"I have faith enough in human nature to believe that we shall learn this lesson and apply it, and that the educational system of this country will increasingly devote its efforts to the increase of wisdom. In such a plan, institutions such as this, which has so greatly honored me today, can take the lead."

REVOLVER POINTED AT KING EDWARD

The King himself was the coolest person in the hectic excitement. He gazed steadfastly into the crowd at the point where the commotion occurred. When the revolver spun through the air and landed beneath his horse, he rode ahead.

The Sovereign was returning from Hyde Park to Buckingham Palace at the time. He had presented colors to six battalions of Foot Guards. Then he rode back towards the palace, followed at a short distance by his brother, the Duke of York, and then by the six battalions, marching in column of fours.

"AS A PROTEST"

McMahon appeared excited when he stood at the dock. He trembled violently. He said: "I didn't want to hurt him anyway. I only did it as a protest." What the protest was about was not explained.

McMahon was sentenced to a year's imprisonment in May of 1933 for allegedly libelling the police. But he won an appeal and the conviction was quashed. Until recently, it was stated, he was editor of a paper called "The Human Gazette."

The revolver also was produced in court by Detective Inspector John Sands. Four of its five chambers were loaded.

HEARD A SCUFFLE

The apparent attempt on the King's life came just after the cavalcade had passed under the Wellington Arch at the top of Constitution Hill. Nearby spectators heard a scuffle at the back of the crowd. Then a revolver, gleaming in the sunlight, flashed through the air and fell to the ground beneath the feet of the King's horse.

The horse, sensing something was wrong, nervously kicked the weapon in its stride.

What actually happened in the few dramatic seconds preceding this was variously described by eye-witnesses. But many of them told how a little, unidentified woman dressed in grey, accompanied by a fair-haired girl, became the heroine of the situation.

A WELL-TIMED BLOW

The woman saw a club-footed, bald-headed man endeavor to make his way through to the front of the crowd, at the same time pointing the revolver. She struck quickly at the man's outstretched arm. So strong was her blow the weapon flew in a wide arc to the pavement.

Those who saw the weapon drawn raised cries which simultaneously drew the attention of the woman, her companion and policemen.

Most eye-witnesses agreed that as the King drew abreast of the spot the man produced the revolver and began to point it over the heads of the crowd. Some said the woman and a policeman knocked it simultaneously out of the man's hand.

One spectator said a mounted policeman's horse seemed to obstruct the man's view. He hesitated, and then the revolver hurtled towards the King.

SPOKE TO EQUERRY

"The King's face seemed to me suddenly grave," this person said. "He turned his head in the direction of the man and appeared to speak to Sir John Aird, his equerry, riding behind with Major-General N. Sergison-Brooke.

Aird immediately turned his horse, rode back to the scene and spoke to a policeman."

A woman nearby said: "The man appeared to come from the fourth row behind us. He pushed his way to the edge of the footpath. I heard someone shout 'Get him.' Immediately a woman followed him out. As he attempted to break the police cordon she and a policeman together knocked the revolver out of his hand. It went into the roadway."

SHOUTS AND SCREAMS

According to another member of the crowd, as soon as the man produced the revolver, people shouted and screamed and surged towards him. This witness said a constable struck the man's arm upwards almost before the weapon was leveled. Afterwards the man was attacked on all sides and flung to the ground. A mounted policeman leaped from his horse on top of the man. Other police rushed up and took him into custody. He was removed to the police station in Hyde Park.

SALUTED QUEEN

There he saluted Queen Mary, standing on a balcony, and then vanished in the inner courtyard.

Prior to the attempted attack, the King, who has not yet been on the throne for a full six months, had presented new colors in Hyde Park to the First and Third Battalions of the Grenadier Guards; the First, Second and Third Battalions of the Coldstream Guards, and the Second Battalion of the Scots Guards.

"Humanity cries out for peace and an assurance of peace," he told them.

After the eventful ride to Buckingham Palace, he motored to St. James' Palace, had luncheon, then drove to Coombe Hill Golf Club, where he played his usual vigorous game. This was in accordance with his original plans, as he had no official visits scheduled for the afternoon. In the evening he returned to St. James' Palace to attend to state affairs.

IN BRIXTON PRISON

McMahon, meanwhile, was in Brixton Prison, where he was taken following his appearance in Bow Street police court. Crowds jeered him as he was driven from Bow Street to the prison.

His address was given when he appeared in court at Westbourne Terrace, West London. He wore a brown suit, but no collar, as he stood, trembling violently, at the dock. He limped as he entered the courtroom, owing to his club foot, and wore a surgical boot.

Detective Inspector Sands quoted McMahon as saying, on the way to the police station: "It is all the fault of Sir John Simon (the Home Secretary). I wrote him last night and phoned him this morning."

MEANT NO HURT

Then, said Sands, McMahon added: "The King wasn't hurt in any way, was he? I didn't want to hurt him in any way. I only did it as a protest."

McMahon was remanded for eight days by Sir Rollo. He was represented by a solicitor.

Sands produced a five-chambered revolver which was loaded in four chambers, but not in the top chamber. He added that McMahon had on his person a postcard portrait of the King, a newspaper and two other rounds of live ammunition.

Some words were scribbled on the newspaper. The Evening Standard said they were: "May I love the King." Some other papers said the words were: "May I love you."

Following the remand, McMahon's solicitor said: "In view of the reports appearing in the evening newspapers, the prisoner wishes to say that there was no attempt at assassination, nor intention of assassination."

MESSAGE FROM CANADA

OTTAWA, July 16 (CP).—Prime Minister Mackenzie King today cabled London an expression of regret at the apparent attempt upon the life of King Edward and of relief that the attack failed. The message, addressed to Hon. Vincent Massey, Canadian High Commissioner, follows:

"I have awaited further details of press reports concerning attempt on His Majesty's life before asking you to communicate with the Royal Palace. Will you please ask Lord Wigram to express to His Majesty the King the deep regret of His Majesty's subjects in Canada that there should have been any attempt to do the King any injury.

"Also kindly express how deeply relieved all Canadians are to know that any intention of the kind wholly failed in its purpose and that His Majesty has not been injured in any way."

REAL SINCERITY

LONDON, July 16 (CP).—The toast of "Gentlemen, the King!" was everywhere offered in London tonight and the time-honored acceptance, "The King, God bless him!" rang with a real sincerity.

Joyful with relief, London was in holiday mood. Theatre and dance orchestras abandoned their usual practice of playing "God Save the King" at the end of the evening. They played it at the beginning and throughout the programme instead.

REACTION IN UNITED STATES

NEW YORK, July 17 (AP).—Editorial columns of New York newspapers today reflect the relief of the United States that the King escaped unharmed from yesterday's incident at London.

The Times:

The people of the United States rejoice today with the people of Britain around the world that their King has not only escaped attempted assassination but has borne himself as becomes a king, true to the ancient definition that a "king is he who has no fear." Of his courage he gave frequent evidence as a prince. Of his concern for the happiness of his people he gives daily proof as King. Even the most democratic of citizens will join those who pride themselves as British subjects in saying "God Save the King."

The Herald Tribune:

King Edward is so popular a figure in this country that the attempt upon his life yielded a sense of personal shock. Fortunately, he was barely even brushed by the danger, and the danger itself is one which all kings and many other prominent public men have learned to accept as a part of their lot.

DENOUNCED AS OUTRAGE

LONDON, July 17 (AP).—Morning newspapers editorially denounced today the danger to King Edward by a pistol-carrying malcontent as an outrage in a democratic country.

The Daily Mail predicted the King "will be taken yet more firmly to the Empire's heart," because of a tradition that British monarchs can "use the streets as freely and safely as their most humble subjects."

The Herald declared "the very idea of violence against him is detestable and cowardly," because the King moves freely among his people, as "one would expect in a democratic country."

RAIN SAVES TOWN FROM FOREST FIRE

Sioux Lookout sections, but did not bring full relief from danger.

There was no rain in other sections, however, and new outbreaks appeared on many fronts. The Sudbury district was hard hit, as flames burned over an area estimated at 1,000 acres, with 5,000 acres of fine timber already destroyed.

DRIVEN FROM HOME

More than 1,000 men were battling about fifty fires in the district. Mrs. Jules Beaulieu, wife of the observation towerman in Secord Township, was reported driven from her home by raging flames.

A huge twenty-square-mile furnace blazed in the Sault Ste. Marie district, in the vicinity of Ranger Lake. Twelve fires in the Blind River district were reported under control.

Fires in the vicinity of Oba, Hornepayne and Owasin, westward along the Canadian National Railways right-of-way from North Bay, were reported fairly well controlled. Additional men and equipment were rushed to outbreaks in the Pickle Lake district and near the Albany River.

AT KAPUSKASING

In the East, new threats showed in the Algonquin Park section. Kapuskasing reported twenty-one fires raging in the vicinity, with forest permits restricted to a minimum to decrease the hazard.

Six new fires blazed out around Fort Frances, near the Manitoba border. No less than sixty-three fires were burning in the Port Arthur section, although many of them were under control.

Estimates of the loss thus far in the Sault district fires was placed in the neighborhood of $3,500,000 by lumbermen there.

MILITIA UNITS BEING CHANGED

Widespread House-Cleaning In Progress Among Canada's Territorials

OTTAWA, July 16 (CP).—The Department of National Defence today made public a long list of militia changes, indicating a vigorous house-cleaning was in progress among Canada's territorial troops.

Changes wiping out many units through disbandments and amalgamations were described as part of a plan to obtain better balance between the various arms in the non-permanent active militia. Some of the units abolished were not organized and it was emphasized the changes have been in progress for several months.

Department officials declined to discuss reports the whole service was being modernized in accordance with resolutions passed last Spring by the Canadian Defence Association calling for greater mechanization, greater supplies of modern equipment and more frequent opportunities for officers to witness manoeuvres on a large scale by troops in other countries.

NO LARGE ORDERS

They said, however, no large equipment orders were being placed at present.

Reports met by silence have persisted for some time that the militia was being reorganized in conformity with plans in effect in the other Dominions and the United Kingdom.

This year the department has disbanded three non-active cavalry units and caused amalgamation of eight others into four units reducing from thirty-five to twenty-eight the number of cavalry units in the country. It disbanded five field troops of engineers, reducing the total number to two, but authorized formation at Ottawa of the 1st Corps Field Survey Company. Fifteen field companies and two fortress companies of engineers were left intact.

It disbanded all divisional ammunition columns, but expanded artillery activities generally, authorizing formation of one new field battery, the 39th, and ordering the 94th and 43rd Field Batteries in Quebec and in Western Ontario to train. They had been unorganized previously. The change raised to seventy the total number of field batteries.

The non-permanent Royal Canadian Corps of Signals was reorganized and various types of units were localized in each of the military districts.

Three infantry regiments and a machine gun battalion were disbanded, two infantry regiments were amalgamated, and a machine gun battalion was split up and amalgamated with five infantry regiments.

One maintenance company of the Army Service Corps was disbanded. A motor machine gun brigade was converted into an armored car unit.

In British Columbia the Irish Fusiliers and the Vancouver Regiment, of Military District No. 11 (British Columbia), were amalgamated as "The Irish Fusiliers" (Vancouver Regiment).

Extra Charge Is Fatal to Show

MONTREAL, July 16 (CP).—Police were called to disband 500 disgruntled theatre patrons last night because of misunderstanding in prices of a special midnight show. The crowd refused to pay an extra charge which had not been advertised and demonstrated. No one was injured. The show was cancelled.

Canada's Pilgrims To Vimy Ridge Set Sail From Montreal

Four Liners Leave Port With Greatest Send-Off in History of River Harbor—Head of Pilgrimage Honored in London

MONTREAL, July 16 (CP).—Somewhere in the St. Lawrence River Canada's pilgrims to Vimy Ridge steamed toward the open sea tonight—more than 5,000 of them aboard four ships that left Montreal at high noon with the greatest send-off this harbor has ever seen.

Another vessel, the Duchess of Richmond, will leave tomorrow with 1,000 pilgrims to the unveiling of Canada's Great War memorial on Vimy Ridge on July 26, but this movement today had no parallel in the history of Montreal's waterfront.

Cheering crowds took up every foot of ground along the harbor front to wave "bon voyage" to the departing pilgrims, and every ship in the harbor, every dredge and tug, joined in a blasting farewell of whistles to the Montrose, the Montcalm, the Ascania and the Antonia as they put out into the harbor.

IS COLORFUL SCENE

From portholes, decks and even the tops of lifeboats the Canadian veterans, war widows, war mothers and the veterans' wives and children waved back their answer as the breeze caught the pennants hung on each vessel from stem to stern.

The embarkation started in the grey hours of dawn when thirteen trains brought the pilgrims into Montreal. From their trains, more than 5,000 of them were transported to the dockside and the waiting ships and went up the gangplanks.

It was a happy scene, pregnant with the feeling of sacred memories, a feeling that could be found nowhere but on the departure of the Vimy pilgrims.

VISIT QUARTERMASTER

And it was colorful. All the pilgrims, after their visit to the quartermaster of each vessel, carried a khaki haversack and wore brightly colored berets. Even the khaki berets were livened up with a dash of red or green.

The voyagers embarked quickly and shortly before noon H.M.C.S. Saguenay, the destroyer that will escort the fleet across the Atlantic, put out into the stream. Then came the H.M.C.S. Chaplain, followed by the four passenger liners, at fifteen-minute intervals.

Bands played war-time tunes right up to the time the boats got under way, the battle-scarred veterans mingling on the decks with sons who had been the "war babies" of 1914-1918.

GUEST AT DINNER

LONDON, July 16 (CP-Havas).—Brigadier-General Alexander Ross, of Yorkton, Sask., Dominion president of the Canadian Legion of the British Empire Service League and head of the Canadian pilgrimage to Vimy Ridge, was guest of honor at a dinner given by the national council of the Service League and the national executive of the British Legion at the Hotel London tonight.

"The Canadian people will always be loyal to the Crown and to the Empire," he said.

"We will visit our comrades in France and Belgium with a message of international peace and good will. We want no recurrence of war, but whatever comes," he said, "it will be the duty and privilege of the Canadian people to stand at all times for the unity of the Empire, which is fundamental for the safety of the world."

Found After Five Days in the Bush

GEORGETOWN, British Guiana, July 16 (CP).—Exhausted and semi-delirious, James O. Fenton, forty-seven-year-old tractor railway foreman, was found by a search party today after being lost five days in bushland near Wismar, sixty miles up the Demerara River from here.

Fenton told rescuers he became so hungry he soaked his trousers in a stream and ate them. He also shot a bird and ate it raw, after drinking its blood.

AUTHORS START SESSIONS HERE

Eastern Editors and Writers Here With Convention Opening This Morning

L. E. Brownell, editor of the National Home Monthly magazine, Winnipeg, will be the principal speaker at the open meeting being held this morning at 10 o'clock in the Empress Hotel, the occasion being the first session of the Victoria meetings of the national convention of the Canadian Authors' Association.

The Victoria and Islands branch of the association, who will act as hosts, extend a cordial invitation to writers, illustrators, or any one interested to attend this meeting.

Other Eastern editors and writers will speak during the morning, and Howard Angus Kennedy, of Ottawa and Montreal, the national secretary, will preside. Some twenty-five out-of-town delegates, mostly from the East and Middle West, are expected.

RECEPTION TONIGHT

Sir Charles G. D. Roberts, doyen of Canadian poets, will speak briefly at the reception being held this evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. Lloyd Morgan, "The Priory," Pemberton Road. He will also speak at the poets' breakfast, being held at the Empress Hotel tomorrow morning at 11 o'clock. Dr. Edward J. Pratt, editor of the Canadian Poetry Magazine, and Dr. Pelham Edgar, of Toronto, will not arrive in town until tomorrow morning, and will speak at the breakfast.

Local branch members and friends who have arranged to motor the out-of-town delegates over the Malahat this afternoon are asked to be ready to leave the Empress Hotel promptly at 1:30 o'clock. The transportation committee, Mrs. T. S. Gore and Miss Dorothy Crighton, will be in the main lobby, near the centre doors. This early start is necessary in order to catch the 3:30 p.m. ferry from Mill Bay, which will allow ample time for the visitors to enjoy the beautiful gardens at "Benvenuto," where Mr. and Mrs. R. P. Butchart will entertain at tea. Those members and friends who are going directly to "Benvenuto" are asked to be ready to leave the Empress Hotel promptly at 3 o'clock.

TO ASSUME CONTROL OF BANK OF FRANCE

After a morning of debate, a vote on a bill to nationalize war industries was postponed until Friday.

Blum's Government already has financed itself through the Bank of France, the nation's leading financial institution. Its leaders have indicated they want the bank's 136-year-old charter so the board of regents may no longer influence Governments, as it is supposed to have done in the past.

DRAWN UP BY NAPOLEON

Under the bank's present charter, drawn up by Napoleon, the board of fifteen regents has been elected since 1800 by the 200 largest stockholders. From that rule came the election campaign attack on the "200 families" by Blum's Leftist followers.

Under the reorganization, ten directors will be appointed by the Government, which hitherto has named only three. Ten more will be nominated by the National Economic Council, in which are represented industry, trade and agriculture. Only ten will be left for the stockholders to elect, instead of twelve as heretofore.

Minute Interviews

"There is more room at the top than ever before, particularly is this true in regard to better-class magazines," replied Sidney Small, of San Rafael, Cal., last night at the Windermere Hotel, when questioned about opportunities for young writers. Mr. Small is a regular contributor to Collier's Weekly, which will carry one of his stories in the next issue.

A former newspaperman himself, Mr. Small contends that "through newspaper work is the only way to magazine writing." Most of the successful magazine writers of his acquaintance are former newspapermen. Reporters who went as far as the city desk chair seldom turned to magazine writing, he added.

Mr. Small has written six books, but prefers to write for magazines.

After much prompting, Mr. Small admitted, in a humorous way, that Vancouver Island did inspire many plots for stories, but refused to say whether he would write anything about it. On a vacation with his wife, who is intrigued with Spode china she finds here, and his two sons, Sidney and John, Mr. Small is primarily interested in landing a number of big fish Up-Island.

A "woman of Wall Street" and partner in the general investment bond firm of Lebenthal & Company, New York City, who has long been featured in newspapers as a financial expert, Mrs. Louis S. Lebenthal was a visitor at the Empress Hotel yesterday.

Mr. and Mrs. Lebenthal have been holidaying in British Columbia for the past few days and interesting themselves in the relations of British Columbia to the Asiatic races here. They wondered how the race problem was going to be worked out, and the place of the native-born Orientals in the future make-up of British Columbia.

The extraordinary friendliness of the people in Canada and the United States, delights Clarence Winchester, British editor and author, who is spending a few days at the Empress Hotel with Mrs. Winchester.

Mr. Winchester, editor-in-chief of the Amalgamated Press, Limited, London, publishers of more than 100 magazines, said what impressed him about Canada was that it was "astonishingly Americanized," yet under it all "there was a great respect for Great Britain."

On his travels across the Dominion, the editor-author has been gathering material for a new book.

"As a matter of public service, the Victoria Automobile Club has undertaken the upkeep of road-direction signs on Vancouver Island by arrangement with the Provincial Public Works Department. The rule followed by the club is that only names of cities, communities and districts shall be displayed on these signs," stated T. J. Goodlake, secretary, during an interview yesterday.

"The club," he continued, "often receives requests from hotels and other private establishments for permission to display arms bearing their names. These requests are invariably refused, but occasionally such names are affixed without permission. The Public Works Department, acting on representations made by this club, has promised to co-operate in enforcing this rule in future and will promptly remove any unauthorized sign arms which come to its notice."

So impressed with Victoria on her visit here three years ago, Mrs. A. B. Boucher, Eureka, Cal., has returned and brought her friend, Mrs. A. Gillingham, of Burlingame, Cal.

"I am never through talking about your beautiful Island," Mrs. Boucher said yesterday at the Victoria Automobile Club. "I urge everyone I know to come here."

"I had a number of appreciative letters from delegates to the Canadian Medical Association and Gamma Phi Beta Sorority conventions, held in June at the Empress Hotel. The writers spoke very highly of the service, courtesy and accommodation afforded them and of the beauty of Victoria. They all went away heartily pleased, so we are feeling good about possibilities for the balance of the season.

MORE TRAVEL PARTIES

"The one good sign of the times is the larger number of tourist parties being sent out by travel organizations," Mr. Mathews declared. "There have not been so many for years. Larger parties are on the way and many organizations we have not heard of for years are becoming active on a large scale again."

Looking out the window of his suite onto the Empress Hotel grounds, the executive said: "I never saw anything in my life to equal these gardens. They are a pleasure for everyone. All you have to do is to look around and you see so many persons walking through them and admiring the large and beautiful blossoms and greenery."

LUMBER INDUSTRY STAGING COMEBACK

increase in domestic consumption within the province. Hemlock and spruce continued slow, with demand for cedar reported fair, but not spectacular.

Waterborne exports for five months of the period reached 448,000,000 board feet, compared with 338,000,000 board feet in a similar period last year. Volume increases in shipments to the United Kingdom, China, South Africa and the Atlantic Coast were highlights in the export picture, including substantial recovery in the Eastern Canadian market.

EMPLOYMENT SPREADS

Taking in all branches of forest production, some 25,000 men were reported back at work in the industry, compared with 14,000 at the low point a few years ago. Last year's total production, worth $57,000,000, will be comfortably exceeded this year if the same rate of advance is maintained, it was said.

For twelve months in 1928 the value of British Columbia products was $93,700,000. This fell to $35,151,000 in 1932, the low point in the depression. Last year the figure was $57,000,000, and this year an output worth $65,000,000 or better is expected, showing steady recovery en route. The gain is the contribution of private endeavor.

Government Halts Parachute Jumps

MOSCOW, July 16 (AP).—Russian pleasure park parachute jumpers were grounded today by the Government. Because of the recent criticism of carelessness and inefficiency, the popular parachute tower in the Park of Cultural Rest was temporarily closed for investigation.

BOYS BACK FROM CAMP

Y.M.C.A. Youths Return to City—Forty C.G.I.T. Girls Encamp Today

Fifty-seven bronzed sun-lovers from the Y.M.C.A. boys' camp at Glinz Lake returned to the city yesterday after a week spent on the shores of the picturesque little lake high in the Sooke Hills. Yesterday marked the official breaking up of the camp, which has entertained 106 boys and camp leaders since its opening two weeks ago.

At 1 o'clock this afternoon, forty girls, members of the Canadian-Girls-in-Training movement, will journey to the camp for eleven days' holiday.

F. Vivian Shoemaker stated last evening the camp this year was the most successful in the history of the Y.M.C.A., and paid high tribute to the work of his energetic assistants, the camp leaders. A record list of boys had been present at the camp, Mr. Shoemaker said, and the week spent in the outdoors had strengthened and sun-tanned many frail little bodies.

Mrs. R. M. Plumb, camp manager for the C.G.I.T., has outlined an active programme for the girls during their eleven-day visit. On Sunday, Rev. Dr. A. S. Imrie will address the girls on religious topics, while the following Saturday, July 25, has been set aside as visitors' day at the camp.

MRS. DE PENCIER IS LAID TO REST

Vancouver's Cathedral Crowded When Last Respects Paid to Wife of Archbishop

VANCOUVER, July 16 (CP).—Citizens of Vancouver crowded Christ Church Cathedral today to pay their last respects to Mrs. Frederika Nina De Pencier, well-known social worker and wife of Most Rev. A. U. De Pencier, Archbishop of the Diocese of New Westminster.

Mrs. De Pencier died from heat prostration at Cedar Falls, Iowa, last Saturday, while en route to Europe with Archbishop De Pencier to attend the ceremonies at Vimy Ridge on July 26.

PROMINENT WORKER

Mrs. De Pencier was twice president of the Women's Canadian Club here and of the Local Council of Women and was prominent in many other organizations, including the Diocesan Board of Women's Auxiliary of the Missionary Society of the Church of England.

Funeral services were conducted by Very Rev. H. D. Sexton and Very Rev. W. Ramsay Armitage. Burial was in the Masonic section, Mountain View Cemetery.

Surviving are her husband; four sons, Rev. Theodore Frederick Wells and Adam, of Vancouver, Joseph C., of Toronto, and Eric Andrew Edwin and two daughters, Mrs. K. S. Vaighan and Miss Sarah Elizabeth, of Vancouver.

PLANS DISCUSSED FOR CELEBRATION

City Council Committee to Investigate Vast Illumination Scheme For Streets

Already plans are being made to celebrate the seventy-fifth anniversary of Victoria's incorporation as a city. The date falls due in August, 1937. The first meeting of a committee of ways and means was held in the City Hall yesterday morning, with Alderman T. W. Hawkins presiding.

John Baxter was appointed secretary, and J. A. Harrison, treasurer. The following committee chairmen were selected: Publicity, Alderman Dr. J. D. Hunter; sports, Alderman James Adam; reception, mayor and council, and finance, committee as a whole.

Suggestions discussed included several fountains illuminated by concealed colored lights and seventy-five illuminated streamers across downtown streets.

Sites for the streamers to be investigated include Douglas Street, from the Crystal Garden to Hudson's Bay Company Store, twenty-one; Belleville Street, one; Government Street, from the Causeway to Pandora Avenue, ten; Yates Street, from Quadra Streets, twelve; Fort Street, from Blanshard to Government Street, eight; View Street, from Government to Douglas Street, two; corner of Government and Johnson Streets, one; Johnson Street, from Government Street to the bridge, four.

Plans also include full illumination of the City Hall and Johnson Street Bridge.

A FANATIC'S ACTION

Something in the nature of a wave of horror will go round the world at the knowledge that His Majesty's life was threatened yesterday by a fanatic at Constitution Hill. The incident, or one of its character, rarely has happened where the British Royal Family is concerned, and therefore it comes as a shock. The man who presented the revolver in the direction of the King was clearly unhinged, judging from his explanation of his action. It will be difficult to show, however that his intention was not to do His Majesty harm, for the revolver was loaded, and there seems to have been an attempt to discharge it.

No such scene in which a British monarch figured has occurred in Great Britain since the attempt on the life of Queen Victoria in 1882, and it is small wonder that the spectators were horrified, and that something like pandemonium ensued. It may be that the King owed his escape from injury to the prompt action of the woman who knocked the revolver from the hand of his would-be assailant. Her alertness was followed by the immediate arrest of the man, McMahon, and it was only the swift work of the police that saved him from the spectators who were naturally incensed.

The happening illustrates the risks run by Royalty no matter how guarded. The King bore himself in an unperturbed way; it is even said that he looked straight ahead when the pandemonium ensued, though he must have known instantly what it was all about. There will be heartfelt rejoicing everywhere that His Majesty sustained no injury. The measures for insuring his safety in the future will probably be redoubled, though the King does not like himself to be the object of too much care.

MEN AND MACHINES

An American Congressman not long ago urged his colleagues to make it a criminal offence to produce more than a prescribed amount of cotton. By way of explanation he said he had recently visited a farm in Kansas where he had worked as a boy, and there he saw three men using machines to harvest a crop that once would have required thirty men. He drew a picture of mass production by machinery. The harvest hand has gone, the cotton picker going, cows were milked by machinery, printing was a dying trade, telephones self-operative, accounts kept by machinery. Machinery was almost self-created. It dug materials out of the ground, transported them to a manufacturing plant, manufactured new machines, and operated them.

Walter Lippmann, the well-known publicist, asks if there is anything wrong in the Congressman's statement, and answers that there is something fundamentally wrong with it. For example, he is of opinion that the three men actually in sight, using machinery on the farm were not the only ones who were working to harvest the crop. Behind them, but out of sight, there were the miners who dug the ore and the coal, the men who made the steel and manufactured the machines, the men who produced the fuel to run them, and the men who transported and serviced them. Thus, the machines which displace twenty-seven men on a Western wheat farm do not displace twenty-seven men elsewhere, because it takes a good many of these men to produce the machines and keep them running.

Certainly, if the day of abundance, the era of lavish plenty were really at hand, as some people confidently assert, we might look for a certain displacement of men by machinery and an increase of leisure. In the meantime, however, the percentage of increase of total production from year to year should furnish an indication of the average yearly displacement of men. Mr. Lippmann is of opinion that, taking good times and bad together, the total production tends to increase at a very modest rate, and describes the notion that labor-saving machinery makes nations poorer as so much illusion, curious but oft-recurring.

A QUESTION OF DIET

For what they are worth, and their worth is confused by their contradictions, there is no end to the prescribing of diets. Where these come from medical sources they are usually based on vitamin contents. Perhaps the best answer to the dietetic craze is that it is a matter for each individual, dependent on what is wrong with him or her, and also dependent on the kind of life led, whether sedentary or active. That is true, it is true, certain broad essentials in the matter of diet; certain things health-giving in the eating, but with all that has been written about diet by so-called experts, even those essentials will not be taken by the average individual, who too often regards his appetite as a law unto itself.

Dr. E. V. McCollum, of Johns Hopkins University, who has done a great deal of research work into the value of vitamins, insists that every-day diet should contain the following: (1) About one quart of milk per person (as a beverage or in combination with other foods). (2) A liberal serving of greens, and (3) two salads or two servings of a raw fruit or vegetable. That sounds very simple, but it is exceedingly doubtful if one person in a hundred takes a quart of milk daily, and, except in Summer time, many do not eat salads. Added to the daily diet, Dr. McCollum advises a serving or two of meat, fish, poultry, game, cheese or eggs. It was this doctor, however, who coined the slogan "Eat what you want after you have eaten what you should." Thus appetites might range widely and thereby upset all the canons of diet.

The actual combination of vitamins that is good for the human frame has never been discovered. Again it is a question of the individual capacity and various other matters. Very few people have learned the alphabet of vitamins. How many know, for instance, that Vitamin A is to be found in butter, cream, cod-liver oil, halibut-liver oil, herring-liver oil, green asparagus, green cabbage, carrots, dandelion greens, kale, green lettuce, pumpkin, spinach, sweet potatoes, turnip tops, bananas, cantaloupe, cherries, pineapple, prunes, tomatoes, liver, eggs and Cheddar cheese? Then there is Vitamin B, in whole barley, whole wheat bread, whole corn, whole rice, haricot beans, dried peas, peanuts, green cabbage, carrots, lettuce, potatoes (white), egg yolk, milk and yeast. Vitamin C is found in string beans, green peas, green asparagus, raw cabbage, cauliflower, celery (raw), cucumbers, lettuce, green pepper, potatoes (white), radish, rhubarb, spinach, swedes, sweet potatoes, turnip tops, turnips, water-cress, apples, bananas, blackberries, cantaloupe, grapefruit, lemons, oranges, pineapple, strawberry and tomato. Vitamin D seems a scarce element, but it is found in cod-liver oil, chicken liver, oysters, egg yolk and halibut liver, while Vitamin G appears in whole wheat, bread, or cereal, dried peas, fresh green cabbage, spinach, water-cress, eggs (whole), milk and yeast.

There is the table of vitamins for the ordinary layman; he can become his own dietician, but even then if he allows appetite to govern his taste he will most certainly go wrong. The truest of all diets is to be found among certain native populations, where many of the dread scourges of civilization are absent and where teeth do not decay.

QUEST FOR THE DALAI LAMA

In Tibet the quest for a new Dalai Lama is still proceeding. The former ruler died in December, 1933, and the country since then, where things of the spirit permeate the minds of men and women, has felt bereft. The legend has it that when a Dalai Lama dies he is reborn within a year or so, and it is two or three years later that the real search begins. The problem, says Sir Charles Bell in an article in The London Times, is to find the small boy in a country that is nine times the size of England. Prophets, priests and others join in the search, and a leading part is played by an oracle near Lhasa and by the chief prophet at Sam-ye, a famous monastery. There is a lake, too, which plays its part, for it is believed that in it the image of the boy being sought is seen and other clues given to his identity. A description of this lake is given by a Tibetan:

"The water of the lake is blue. You watch it from the hill-side. A wind arises, and turns the blue water into white. A hole, blue-black in color, forms in this white water. Clouds form above this hole, and below the clouds you see images showing the events of the future."

During his reign the Dalai Lama visits the lake to see in it the future events of his life. The Tibetan belief is that there are three reincarnations: of the body, the speech and the mind. "It is the body that must be found," writes Sir Charles Bell. "There are further tests. Three or four boys about three years old may be brought forward, and each is set to identify the property of his predecessor, or rather of himself in his previous life. Articles which were habitually used are placed before him; the holy bell, the drum made from two skulls, the drinking cup and so on. Along with these are set out others that do not belong. He may also show signs of recognizing his old butler or a favorite riding mule."

During the interval of the search for the new Dalai Lama the priests and the people of Tibet pray, but they are not happy, for they have lost, for the time being, their spiritual guidance. There is constant prayer for the speedy reincarnation of the Dalai Lama.

THE ROSE

I often wonder when I see a rose
Come newly budding on a parent bush,
If in the early days of Spring-time flush
She ever dreamed such beauty to disclose?
And I have watched her, when the rough wind blows,
Lift leaves like arms to make a little nest
About the roses lying on her breast
With all the tender love a mother knows.

And I have thought perhaps a rose is meant
To be a symbol of a greater love,
Her beauty winning men as beauty must,
And bringing to their hearts a fine content
That over all a spirit dwells above
Who by the rose inspires man's heart to trust.

The Observation Car

From a War Album

Scout pilots of the Royal Flying Corps, stationed in the Dunkerque-Nieuport section of coastal Belgium during the Great War, will long recall the visit of the Black Fe's, a famous British night-flying squadron. Only they would speak of them as the —— Black Fe's! The scout squadron played host to the Fe's, who used their aerodrome for a one-night stand. It was enough; for returning at the end of their night mission into enemy territory, the Fe's and their riding lights were followed home by German machines that rained bombs on the scouts' aerodrome every time the landing lights were turned on. The Fe's got down safely, and no real damage was done. The host squadron went on a dawn patrol next morning with a decided grouch, and a life-long aversion for night bombers.—S.G.

An Off-Color Face

After telling our tobacconist friend a good joke, we noticed a rosy glow on his usually pale face. But it was not the story. He had been lying on a beach in the sun all afternoon . . . . In the Hamley Building a sign over a defunct elevator says: "Elevator hours, 1 p.m. to 11 p.m." Even when the building was in its heyday, the lift hours would be considered quite odd . . . . Some person's idea of humor is rather far fetched. While we were in a taxi office one night this week, a girl twice telephoned for a cab from the same location. Each time a driver arrived at the spot there was nobody in sight. . . . In an English magazine we noticed an advertisement for a "silent" dog whistle selling for $2.07. The whistle is claimed to be scarcely audible to the human ear, yet capable of controlling a dog over a wide area . . . We came across the following old English translation of an early Saxon code regarding Leap Year: "Albeit as often as leape yearre dothe occurre, the woman holdest prepogative over the menne in matters of courtship, love and matromonie, so that when the woman proposeth it will not be lawful for the man to say nay, but shall entertain her proposal in all gude courtesie."—G.B.

Batted Out Headlight

George Payne, well-known football and cricket player, who works on the floor below us, did some sensational batting for the Five C's in a friendly match last Saturday at Beacon Hill, when he batted 114 not out, but at the same time, during his prolonged stay at wicket, he unconsciously did some damage to his own car which was parked nearby. As he batted the opposition bowling to all corners of the lot, George connected for a boundary and, although there was close to forty cars parked at the Hill, he smacked the ball into one of his own headlights, shattering it beautifully. However, George didn't mind, as he continued batting brilliantly for his team, and, after all, what's a broken headlight when a "jolly" cricket victory is at stake. Next time, pick somebody else's light, George, and not your own.—J.D.

FIFTY YEARS AGO TODAY

From The Daily British Colonist of July 17, 1886

New Westminster News—Hon. T. White arrived in New Westminster at 4 o'clock this afternoon, and was welcomed by Mayor Dickinson and Alderman Homer, M.P., and many prominent citizens. In the evening an address was presented him by the Mayor, and happily replied to by Mr. White. He will be banquested by the city at the Colonial tomorrow evening.

Marine Notes—The steamer Alexander, Captain Christensen, came in yesterday afternoon from Burrard Inlet, where she had towed the ship Beaconsfield from Royal Roads. The report of the loss of the schooner Favorite in the Behring Sea turns out to be entirely without foundation. The rumor probably arose from a confusion of names, the American sealing schooner Look Out having been reported lost lately in the same locality. The steamship Bardonyx is again alongside the wharves. An inspection of her hull failed to disclose any material damage—the injury being confined to a little scraping of that portion where she rested on the rock. The steamer will leave on Tuesday next for San Francisco, there to take on passengers for Mexico. The steamship Queen of the Pacific, will sail today for San Francisco.

Sealing News—Mr. Trego intends to purchase or build three more schooners for his seal fishing enterprise and send them out next season.

ARBITRATION IS SUGGESTED

Rivers Inlet Fishing Fleet Asked to Return to Work Pending Settlement

British Columbia's Government moved yesterday to mediate if possible in the deadlock between salmon cannery operators and fishing fleets in the Rivers Inlet area, where cessation of fishing has followed disagreement over the price to be paid for the landed fish.

Hon. G. S. Pearson wired to representatives of the fishermen, asking if they would return to work pending arbitration of the dispute, on the assurance that forty cents per fish would be paid in the meantime.

The Government was waiting a reply as the day closed. So far there have been no disturbances in the area, though fishing there has come to a standstill at the height of a fair season.

NOTHING WRONG WITH COUNTRY

E. F. Flynn Tells Clubmen False Teachings Must Be Counteracted

Rotarians as good citizens should teach there was nothing wrong with North America. As long as false teachings were broadcast, unemployment and relief would continue beyond anything heretofore known, declared Edward F. Flynn, of St. Paul, Minn., in addressing the Victoria Rotary Club during a luncheon meeting at the Empress Hotel yesterday. Mr. Flynn is a former director of Rotary International and director of public relations for the Great Northern Railway.

Mr. Flynn stated there had been many serious depressions in the past, after which came greater prosperity than ever before. There was every reason to believe history would repeat itself, but persons should, by their own efforts, offset the harm done by false teaching, he said.

Although there was a great deal of talk about lack of opportunities because of banished frontiers, Mr. Flynn stated there was adventure and romance in creating new articles, machinery or conveniences, the manufacturer of which would provide employment for those who really wished to work. He described how recovery from previous depressions was brought about by such inventions as the cotton gin, harvesting machine, telegraph, sewing machine, dynamo, radio, automobile and railway building.

INITIATIVE GONE

Because persons had become so liberal with charity, relief to a large extent had taken the place of invention and endeavor, had stifled initiative and the ambition to invent, and smothered inspiration and the desire to work which had built up great nations, Mr. Flynn asserted.

He wanted to know who was more competent to provide the wonders of science, intelligence, work and industry than the hundreds of young men and women graduated annually from North American Colleges.

Dealing with opportunities, Mr. Flynn listed air-conditioned clothing, derivation of heat and power from the interior of the earth, power from the sun and invention of an automobile that would exert every particle of energy from a gallon of gasoline. Stating it was necessary to teach young men and women it would be necessary to work harder today than ever before, he gave brief glimpses of the lives of Henry Ford, Charles F. Kettering, eminent engineer, and Thomas A. Edison.

Mr. Flynn's concluding remarks were: "Rough places and not smooth ones have made great men and great nations. Let us not make the young men of the country 'softies.' Let us make it our duty to restore and encourage faith and confidence in our nation and its future, and to prove that the shores of opportunity have not departed, but are all about us if we are big enough and will work hard enough to discover them."

Streets By-Law To Be Revised

Oak Bay will revise its existing streets by-law, the council decided yesterday.

Because horses were being ridden on municipal sidewalks and young men were using the newly-built seapromenade as a bicycle track, the council decided some action should be taken.

Signs will be erected to curb the boys using the walk as a race track, while the entire streets by-law will be amended to define the horse-riding restrictions more fully and to check any further obscure meanings in the by-law.

FAITH

We are justified by faith alone but the faith that justifies is never alone.

No letter to the Editor will be inserted except over the proper signature and address of the writer. This rule admits of no exception. No letter should exceed 500 words in length.

CO-OPERATIVE CREDIT

Sir,—There is growing uneasiness and a most significant lack of enthusiasm over the policies now being initiated by the new Government at Ottawa to solve the problem of the unemployed and lift the burden of this continuing depression.

If one could translate the fear in many hearts it might read thus: The Liberal Government has not yet sensed the nature or diagnosed the root causes of the trouble, and has no real solution for the problem of unemployment, but is bent upon a succession of useless experiments along old party lines that will only sink the nation in still deeper debt.

Will the people have to endure another four-year term of floundering in poverty, while politicians enjoy the exhilarating sport of experimentation in politics? How long before the people get convinced they are leaning on a broken reed?

The widening ramifications of people's property and homes being lost for taxes are not only causing fear and misery but are slowly drying up the sources of national income by which the Governments function and without which they cannot carry on. Slowly all national activities are becoming moneybound, and yet the hilarious spending of money by Government departments goes on, piling up debts upon interest.

Let us now consider what we here in Victoria would do if there comes a collapse of all financial credits, a complete breakdown of the monetized system of government, and if we were left to our own resources to work out our salvation by the means at our immediate disposal. As a community it could do us no harm to prepare beforehand a plan of action that would provide safety, food, clothing and all necessities without the use of money. It would have to be done somehow, and, if unprepared, much suffering would result. When the early settlers first landed here they had to depend on their own efforts to provide the necessities of life, build homes and create new towns and settlements with very little capital and none of our modern conveniences.

With a system of community credit I see no reason why large numbers of our young people and unemployed could not start life here on the Island in the same way, if thoroughly organized to work together on well-prepared schemes. It would make life much safer and happier for all if the rich people in our midst would provide the financial backing for such a scheme, and in the end they would not be the losers financially.

One could name at least four places on our Southern West Coast where new towns and settlements could be readily established with Government co-operation and even if the depression lifted and our fears were groundless, we would have added to the wealth of the country by settling towns and communities in a fine piece of country now lying idle. Our first step might be the formation of a West Coast Development Association to prepare for a financial collapse, as if it were already here, and to relieve the local unemployment situation by opening up new settlements on a co-operative work-credit basis, financially grub-staked by well-wishers in Victoria and relief work funds.

AIDS TO HEARING

Sir,—The Victoria Club for the Hard of Hearing wishes to thank Major R. F. Castle, of the Oak Bay Theatre, for the great expression of kindness he has shown to deafened people, by installing hearing aids and amplifiers in the new Oak Bay Theatre. Perhaps it is not generally known that since the silent pictures were discontinued many people who used to make them their chief form of entertainment have since been deprived of a great deal of pleasure and education. Although personal hearing aids are used by many, they are as a rule not entirely satisfactory, so by having radiophones properly connected the patrons will again be able to enjoy a good show.

We heartily congratulate and thank Major Castle and hope that the managers of other theatres will soon follow his example.

H. N. GAHAN,
Secretary.

The times used is Pacific standard for the 120th Meridian west. It is counted from 0 to 24 hours, from midnight to midnight. The figures for height serve to distinguish high water from low water. Where blanks occur in the table the tide rises or falls continuously during two successive tidal periods without turning.

The height is in feet and tenths of a foot, measured from the average level of low water.

To find the depth of water on the sill of the Esquimalt drydock, add 18.9 feet to the height of high water as above given.

To find the depth of water on the sill of the Saanich drydock, add 20 feet to the height of high water as above given.

CULBERTSON on CONTRACT

By Ely Culbertson

World's Champion Player and Greatest Card Analyst

SHORT TRUMP SUITS

The management of short trump suits probably gives average players more grey hairs than all their other difficulties put together. Undoubtedly their dilemma is as much psychological as technical. The fear that, once the trumps are gone the opponents will go snake dancing with their established suits is so shattering to their morale that orderly reasoning becomes impossible.

In today's hand success depended on what would appear, to many players, as a virtual squandering of trumps.

The bidding

North's take-out double was ther skimpy. Although he did have three and a half honor tricks, his 4-3-3-3 distribution was far from attractive. South was correct in refusing to allow East's two spade bid to shut him out. He had a fair heart suit, which his partner's take-out double had invited, and a reasonably good diamond suit, as well as favorable distribution. North was 'on the spot' after the three heart bid. He realized that his double had been none too robust, but figured that almost anything was better than hanging one short of game. West's penalty double was close, but justifiable.

The opening lead was the spade king, followed by the queen. Declarer ruffed the latter and led his nine of hearts. West, of course, ducked, and dummy's ten was played. The queen of diamonds followed. East not covering, the jack was continued. Again East ducked and this time West ruffed with the three of hearts. A third round of spades was ruffed by the declarer, who thus was reduced one trump, to West's and dummy's two. Declarer then played his last trump, and it did not matter whether West covered or not. As a matter of fact, he ducked, and dummy, of course, did likewise. Dummy was now entered with a club and the ace of hearts was laid down, dropping West's king while declarer discarded a club. Another diamond finesse gave declarer two more tricks in that suit, and the other club trick in dummy accounted for the tenth trick.

Merchants Report Tourist Business Is Best in Years

Over 1,000 Shriners and Hundreds of Other Visitors in Victoria Yesterday—Some Stores Do Unprecedented Trade During the Day

ALL Victoria smiled on over 1,000 Shriners and several hundred visitors from many parts of the world yesterday, and city store clerks were run off their feet. Fez-topped delegates to the Shrine convention in Seattle looked Victoria over yesterday afternoon and returned at 5 p.m. to the Puget Sound city, taking with them many parcels.

The visitors had interesting comments to make while here, one remark being: "I was led to believe Victoria was a pretty but small town. But I find it quite a lusty city."

Several compared prices of goods here and in their own cities, and were delighted to find Victoria shops exhibiting an even better class of goods at lower prices.

One visitor purchased two dozen pairs of woollen socks, stating he could not buy the same quality in his Middle West state. Others had much to say about the small English cars here.

WAIT IN QUEUES

A number of the art and curio stores had queues of customers yesterday waiting to be served.

Several stores catering to fishermen did unprecedented business, indicating that Victoria visitors are beginning to spread Up-Island to fishing centres. Excellent runs of cohoes and early springs were reported from Cowichan Bay and from Parksville to Comox. Also, sea trout up to three pounds are being taken on the fly at Comox.

"What I like about your stores," remarked one Shriner, "is the happy, smiling faces and good nature of your clerks. Although the clerks are experiencing what we in the Eastern states would compare to a Christmas rush, they are full of attention and courtesy and seem to be enjoying the 'times thoroughly."

UNUSUAL BUSINESS

A local business man who has been rather pessimistic in the past about the tourist business and has said he feared the Vancouver jubilee celebrations would attract all the people, said yesterday with a smile: "I walked down Government Street, last night, and the sidewalk was so full I had to get off and walk in the road."

Besides hotel and automobile camp proprietors, barbers, hair dressers, laundrymen, delicatessen operators and restaurants are unusually busy, they report.

Many comments are being made this year on the courtesy of police, and downtown traffic was tied up for a few seconds yesterday while three young women visitors stood in the street to take pictures of a helmeted constable.

FIVE ATTEMPTS TO KILL QUEEN

Victoria's Life Was Several Times in Danger From Insane Attackers

LONDON, July 16 (C.P.). — Former attempts on the lives of members of the British Royal family were recalled tonight by London newspapers, which devoted columns to the story of the man who aimed a revolver at King Edward.

It was recalled that five attempts were made upon the life of Queen Victoria between the years 1840 and 1869, and one in 1882.

SHOT AT IN TRAIN

King Edward VII, grandfather of the present King, was never attacked in England, but in 1900, a year before he came to the throne, a young anarchist named Sipido fired at him as he sat in a train at Brussels. The bullet smashed the window of the railway carriage and missed the then Prince of Wales by inches. Unperturbed, the Prince lit a cigar and pleaded for clemency for the assailant.

The first attempt on the life of Queen Victoria occurred almost at the same spot as today's attempt. It was June 10, 1840. The Queen and Prince-Consort Albert were driving along Constitution Hill in an open carriage. A crazy potboy called Oxford fired two pistols. The shots passed close to Prince Albert's head.

SENT TO ASYLUM

Arrested, Oxford feigned madness. He was acquited on grounds of insanity and spent forty years in Bedlam, the St. Mary of Bethlehem Hospital, which was used as a lunatic asylum. Afterwards he was sent to Australia, where he became a house painter.

Two years later there were two attempts by a man called Francis and by a hunchback named Bean, who were found to be insane. In 1850 a half-pay officer called Pate attacked Queen Victoria with a stick. In 1869 an Irish boy named O'Connor pointed a pistol at Her Majesty in St. James' Park. Flogging was ordered in both these cases, but the punishment was remitted at the request of Queen Victoria. She sent O'Connor to Australia at her own expense.

The last attempt on Queen Victoria's life was made at Windsor in 1882 by a madman called MacLean, who fired at the Queen as she left the station. But an Eton boy with an umbrella beat down MacLean's hand and diverted the shot.

Pilots Thrill Big Crowd

ARMY AND NAVY VETERANS MEET

The general monthly meeting of the Victoria Unit, Army and Navy Veterans, was held last evening in the rotunda of the clubrooms, Wharf Street. The meeting was well attended and five new members were initiated. The unit now boasts 449 members in good standing.

All members were asked to attend the funeral of the late Comrade F. Ward, which will be held at Sands Mortuary this afternoon at 2 o'clock.

It was decided to form a chess club in connection with the unit and any chess players in the city interested in joining are asked to communicate with J. C. Rivers, secretary.

A review of the beneficiary fund showed it to be in a good financial condition and special arrangements were made at the meeting to insure its soundness.

Many beautiful floral tributes were received, testifying to the high esteem in which Mr. Ireland was held. Interment was made in the family plot at Ross Bay Cemetery and the following acted as pallbearers: H. Broughton, A. Murray, F. H. Hawes, C. R. Griffin, A. H. Dobson and C. H. Millens.

The remains were laid at rest in Ross Bay Cemetery.

ELECTION COST IS REPORTED

C.C.F. Expenses in Victoria Federal By-Election Are Detailed

It cost the Co-operative Commonwealth Federation $583.80 to contest the Victoria Federal by-election, according to the official accounts filed yesterday on behalf of Prof. J. King Gordon, who came second in the three-cornered contest.

The accounts, as produced before Sydney Child, returning officer, showed $645.09 received in contributions, and $566.87 expended by the candidate's agent and $16.93 in personal expenses by the candidate.

Professor Gordon saved his election deposit, as did all three contestants in the by-election, which seated Hon. Dr. S. F. Tolmie, the Conservative nominee.

GAIN SHOWN IN TAX RECEIPTS

Oak Bay Returns for First Half of 1936 Higher Than Similar Period in 1935

Returns of current taxes in Oak Bay for the first half of 1936 were better than receipts for the corresponding period in 1935, and higher than was anticipated this year, the Oak Bay Council was informed last night by Councillor Richard Angus, finance committee chairman.

No figures on the returns were disclosed by the committee chairman.

Councillor Angus did say, however, that collection of arrears of taxes were not up to expectations. It was explained that greater returns in the arrears and delinquent accounts were received each September, following the application of tax penalties and the annual tax sale.

Expenditures for the first half of 1936 were normal, he reported. No figures on expenditures for the various municipal departments were issued by Councillor Angus.

Has Unique Distinction In Science

DR. RICHARD H. FLEMING

Among Victorians who have especially distinguished themselves in the scientific world is Richard Fleming, Ph.D., who with his wife and small daughter has just returned to California after a holiday here as the guest of his mother, Mrs. Harold Fleming, Foul Bay Road.

Mr. Fleming has the distinction of being the first ever to take the degree in the comparatively new science of oceanography. A graduate of the University of British Columbia, where he took his B.A. and M.A., he went subsequently to the University of California, where he secured his Ph.D. and his degree in oceanography. He is now at the famous Scripps Institute of Oceanography at La Jolla, engaged in lecturing and special research work of a highly specialized and interesting nature.

While in Victoria he went, by special invitation, to the Marine Biological Station at Departure Bay, where he gave a short address to the staff on his oceanographic work.

His recent visit is the first he has made for four years to his former home. He came north a few weeks ago to attend the sessions of the American Scientific Association held in Seattle, and from there came over to Victoria to see his mother. While in British Columbia, he also visited his sister, Mrs. J. P. Fowle, at Vernon.

SCHOOL MEETINGS AT ISLAND POINTS

SHAWNIGAN LAKE, July 16.—The annual meeting of the ratepayers of the Shawnigan Lake School District was held in the school on Wednesday evening R. P. Weber, chairman of the school board, opened proceedings with a silent tribute to the memory of the late S. J. Heald, secretary of the board for sixteen years, after which H. E. Hawking was duly installed as chairman of the meeting.

Mrs. E. G. Gibson, secretary, read the trustees' report, giving a comprehensive outline of the year's activities. The recommending of the six entrance pupils reflected credit on the work of the students and the conscientious tuition of the principal, J. R. Bowett. An excellent report was also given of the work of Miss E. V. Archer, teacher of Division II.

It is expected that fourteen Shawnigan pupils will be attending the Cobble Hill High School in the coming year. Representations will be made to the official trustees of the high school for a reduction in the tuition fees.

Reports were read from the health officer and the high school principal, and the Cowichan Health Centre was commended for its work in the district.

The gratitude of the board was also expressed to the Women's Institute for its usual keen interest in the school and its donations of school prizes and ice cream for the picnic.

Following the trustees and auditor's reports, G. S. Gibson was re-elected auditor with thanks for his work in the past, and F. M. Gannon was unaninously elected trustee. The financial statement showed a balance of $392.03. The estimates for the year were fixed at $2,031, and at the suggestion of the board the assessment to be levied on the district will be $1,900.

SOOKE

At a meeting of the Sooke Ratepayers' Association held in the hall, Charles Thompson was re-elected trustee and C. A. Helgesen was re-elected auditor. Mr. Helgesen was chairman. Plans were made for a new and more suitable style of fence on the road frontage, and probably a sign giving the name of Sooke Superior School. The change of location of the bicycle shed will also add to the appearance of the school.

QUALICUM BEACH

The annual school meeting was held in the schoolroom at Qualicum on Wednesday, V. Wilkinson in the chair. The school report, read by Frank Parker, was very satisfactory, there being no complaint during the year. The auditors' report was also found satisfactory, with a balance in hand.

It was passed that the basement be wired and two electric fans installed for the furnace.

There was no change made in the salaries of teachers, district school nurse, secretary or janitor.

J. E. Buckham having completed his term as trustee, was re-elected and will continue as secretary to the board. R. H. Hodgson was appointed auditor, and Mrs. J. C. Bailey was appointed to represent the local school in the district health board.

Found Lying Dead On Railway Track

AGASSIZ, B.C., July 16 (C.P.).—The body of David H. Wise, of Hannah, Alta., today was found lying on the Canadian Pacific Railway track two miles east of here.

It is believed Wise fell from an eastbound freight train, fracturing his skull as he struck the ground. A coroner's jury returned a verdict of accidental death.

40,000 STOPS AN HOUR

In your driving you average 30 stops a day...
4 out of every 5 miles you drive are "STOP-and-GO"

TODAY... no matter where you live... it's shift-shift-shift from morning to night! You average over 60 shifts a day.

Shifting gears after one stop can use up enough gasoline to take you ⅓ of a mile.

For economy in today's "stop-and-go" driving, your gasoline needs 3 different kinds of power—just as your car needs 3 different gears.

You need one kind of power for QUICK STARTS, one for FAST PICKUP and hill climbing, one for STEADY RUNNING.

TELLS HOUSE OF INVASION

Grounds of British Legation At Addis Ababa Entered By Italian Troops

LONDON, July 16 (CP-Havas).—A detachment of Italian Carabineers invaded the grounds of the British Legation in Addis Ababa on July 6, Viscount Cranbrone, under-secretary for foreign affairs, revealed in the House of Commons tonight.

The disclosure was made in a written reply to a question from Lieut.-Commander Reginald Fletcher, Labor, who sought details of the shutdown of the legation wireless ordered by the Italians.

"His Majesty's charge d'affaires in Addis Ababa, in compliance with the decree of the Italian authorities dated July 8 and valid for fifteen days, has discontinued the use of the legation wireless installation for purposes of transmission only," Lord Cranborne's statement said.

ACTS UNDER PROTEST

"Roberts (British charge d'affaires) has acted under protest, in conformity with the action of his colleagues in other legations concerned."

"In reply to the last part of the question, on July 6 a party of Italian Carabineers entered the grounds of His Majesty's legation with a view to occupying the wireless installation, in anticipation of the decree issued later on that day, from the operation of which foreign legations were subsequently excepted.

"His Majesty's charge d'affaires intervened and the party was withdrawn later in the day. No repetition of the incident has been reported.

"These matters have been taken up urgently not only by Roberts with Marshal Graziani (Viceroy of Ethiopia), but also by His Majesty's ambassador in Rome acting on the instructions of His Majesty's Government."

PARTY TO HAVE NO CANDIDATES

Paul Gouin Announces Action Liberale National Will Not Contest Elections

MONTREAL, July 16 (CP).—Paul Gouin, Action Liberale Nationale leader, in a statement to the press today, announced his party will place no candidates in the Provincial election field.

"L'Action Liberale Nationale was founded for two purposes: To adapt Provincial legislation to present day problems and to endow Quebec with a national political aim," Mr. Gouin said.

"To accomplish this it was first necessary to overthrow the Taschereau regime. This task, a work of destruction, has been practically completed. We will now enter the second stage of our movement. The period of reconstruction.

"I believe it would be useless and actually dangerous to try to accomplish this work in the political field. First of all an educational campaign is needed, which for the moment should not be carried out except outside the bounds of electoral preoccupations. For this reason, as chief of L'Action Liberale Nationale, I have decided not to enter any candidates in the ranks during the next elections."

STRIKE LEAVES MEXICO IN DARK

Thousands of Factories Idle And Residences Are Without Lights

MEXICO CITY, July 16 (AP).—A strike of 3,000 electric power company employees tonight held an estimated 60,000 workers idle in the heart of Mexico.

Vincente Lombardo Toledano, secretary-general of the Mexican Confederation of Workers, said approximately 4,000 factories and shops were paralyzed.

At the same time it was calculated unofficially a half-million residences were without lights and 100,000 housewives were facing cold electric stoves.

Workers demanded pay increases totaling 1,000,000 pesos (about $278,000) annually.

G. R. C. Conway, British president of the Belgian and Canadian-owned company, at the behest of President Cardenas, offered increases of 520,000 pesos (about $135,000).

The proposal was not received with enthusiasm by the strike committee.

Victims of Plane Crash Unconscious

FAIRBANKS, Alaska, July 16 (AP).—Pilot Percy Hubbard, noted Alaska flyer, and Miss Betty Thomas, who were injured in an airplane wreck near here, were both unconscious tonight in a Fairbanks hospital.

The girl's mother, Mrs. Nora Lehto, was killed as the plane went into a tailspin at 1,500 feet and crashed among trees yesterday.

Physicians were doubtful if they could save Hubbard's right foot which was crushed at the ankle. The girl had a fractured right leg and a possible fracture at the base of the skull.

Redecorating Courthouse — Victoria's courthouse, built in the stone-veneer age, was undergoing its annual clean-up yesterday at the hands of painters and decorators, who were at work in the Supreme and County Court registries.

Rotary Luncheons — In future, members of Victoria Rotary Club will pay 85 cents for their luncheons at the Empress Hotel, it was decided by clubmen yesterday. Ten cents out of each meal ticket will go to the club treasury.

Accounts Approved — Accounts totaling $13,247, including all the grants made this year, a special hospital grant to Royal Jubilee Hospital, and a library service charge, were approved for payment by the Oak Bay Council yesterday.

Traffic Light—A Northern Electric traffic signal for the intersection of Yates and Blanshard Streets is expected here about the middle of next month. It is anticipated signals will be installed next year at the intersection of Government and Johnson Streets and Douglas Street and Pandora Avenue.

Picnic Arranged — The Oak Bay Council last night agreed to allow the municipal staff a half-day holiday on Saturday, August 15, in order that the Municipal Employees' Federation may hold its first annual picnic at Mount Douglas Park. The council voted the association $20 to help defray costs.

Acknowledges Gift — Captain Burges J. Gadsden, of the Sunshine Inn, yesterday received donations from Wallace H. McMillan, 1630 Rockland Avenue, formerly of Winnipeg. Mr. McMillan presented the inn with two freshly-caught salmon, one of sixteen pounds and the other twenty-seven. They were caught by Mr. McMillan.

No Power to Act—Because it was outside the council's jurisdiction, the Oak Bay Council yesterday refused a request from the V.A.S.C., seeking financial assistance to send Mrs. Monica Trump, Oak Bay swimmer, to the Olympic Games. "It is purely a personal matter," councillors said.

Exchequer Court—Two sittings of the Exchequer division of Federal courts will be held in British Columbia in September, according to a notice posted at the Victoria courthouse. The court will sit at Victoria on September 11 and at Vancouver on September 8, if there are causes to be heard.

Instructor Resigns—John J. Rippon, instructor in machine-shop practice in technical training classes here since 1921, has tendered his resignation from Victoria High School staff and intends to return to England. Regrets of the school board at his resignation were expressed to Mr. Rippon through the supervisor of manual training and technical work.

Oddity in Nature—One of the strangest natural growths, a wooden beaver, is on view in The Colonist business office window. Presumably the root of a cedar tree, the freak carving is almost an exact replica of the native Canadian beaver, and with two glass eyes its finder, W. F. Nichol, of the Manitoba Hotel, inserted in the head, it is almost impossible to distinguish it from a stuffed beaver. Mr. Nichol found the growth between Otter Point and Sooke on the new highway.

Sooke Siphon — Tenders for replacing 1,000 feet of No. 1 siphon on the Sooke Lake pipe line system will not be called until late Summer, G. M. Irwin, city engineer, announced yesterday. The siphon is located one and three-quarter miles from the southern end of Sooke Lake, and the work cannot be carried out until the rainy season commences. It is anticipated the project will cost about $10,000, which sum has been provided for out of the $100,000 public works fund.

Continue Case Today — Mr. and Mrs. William Vid Smith, Feltham Road, took the witness stand in Saanich police court yesterday, to deny charges that they had kept liquor for sale, and told the court that on the morning of July 5, when police visited their home, they were entertaining a few friends, one of whom had brought with him a dozen bottles of beer. After this evidence was heard, Stuart Henderson, counsel for the defence, asked the case be remanded until today, at 2 p.m., so three witnesses might be called. Magistrate George Jay granted the remand. Mr. Henderson, at the reopening of the case yesterday, informed the court that he would not argue the point further as to whether it was illegal for authorities to seize liquor on Sunday.

LOSS OF CROPS HEAVY IN U.S.

Rain Urgently Needed Over Large Area—Heat Fatalities Mounting

CHICAGO, July 16 (AP).—The corn belt finished two weeks of the hottest, driest weather it has known today, with no relief in prospect and fears growing that a crop disaster exceeding that of 1934 was in the making.

Except for a few favored areas, the millions of acres of Middle West farmlands which produce the United States greatest cash crop baked on the fourteen day in temperatures which continued to top previous highs.

Deaths ascribed to the long stay of the torrid wave decreased somewhat in number, but exceeded 4,200 to maintain a 300 daily average.

ON CANADIAN PRAIRIES

WINNIPEG, July 16 (CP). — Hot weather continued on the Canadian prairies today, but though the forecast was "mostly fair and warm," it seemed certain the worst of the heat wave had passed.

Scattered showers in Manitoba tonight were the only reported rains on the Prairies and the need for heavy general rains grew more pressing.

Our dependence upon God is constant and therefore our prayers should be constant.

Grand Lodge Official Will Be Welcomed

Victoria Chapter, No. 25, Women of the Moose, will be honored by a visit by Mrs. Jane M. Debus, the Grand Regent of Women of the Moose. Plans were made at a recent meeting of the chapter to entertain her. The committee, composed of Mesdames K. Herring, L. Quaintance and E. Clark, has arrane'd a banquet in the Doulas Hotel for next Monday evening at 6:30, to be followed by a special meeting in the hall at 8 o'clock. On her arrival from Seattle in the afternoon, Mrs. Debus will be entertained by officers of the chapter.

A welcome was extended to Mrs. E. Jane after her lengthy illness. With Past Regent Mrs. A. Hatcher and guide officiating, she was duly installed in her office of past regent. Sick Matron Mrs. R. Panting reported Past Regent M. Pearce ill and allowed no visitors. A vote of thanks was extended to chairmen and the committees for the year's reports, showing a very active and beneficial one for the chapter.

Mrs. Randy, convener of child care and training, turned over to the chapter many animal toys made from cloth, also clothes to fit small children. These will be added to and distributed at Christmas time. She also read the audit report for last quarter. The library convener, Mrs. C. Drysdale, reported that since last September she had distributed 600 magazines and bundles of funny papers to the following: Seamen's Institute, Jubilee Hospital, Aged and Infirm Men's Home, Recreation Rooms, Aged and Infirm Women's Home and Rainbow Sea Cadets.

It was decided to postpone the appointing of new committees until the meeting of August 10. Present committees will carry on until then. The report of the strawberry social, held at the home of Mrs. L. Quaintance, was given by Mrs. A. Hatcher. The social meeting planned for July 27 has been canceled. A buffet supper was served by Mesdames R. Panting and I. Guelpa. The knitted cushion, donated by Mrs. M. Morry, was won by Mrs. L. Freer, 3801 Quadra Street.

Royal Oak

Mr. and Mrs. H. Brewster entertained at their home, Elk Lake, on Wednesday evening when they celebrated their silver wedding. The rooms were decorated for the occasion with lilies, roses and sweet peas, and during the evening their daughter, Hazel, appeared as a bride of twenty-five years ago, dressed in her mother's wedding gown and veil, and carrying a bouquet of lilies. A three-tier wedding cake, which had been decorated by Mrs. E. Campbell, held a place of honor, and during the evening refreshments were served. Mr. and Mrs. Brewster were the recipients of many beautiful gifts. Dancing was enjoyed. The invited guests included Mr. and Mrs. J. Mycock, Mr. and Mrs. G. Barker, Mr. and Mrs. T. Raper, Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Baker, Mr. and Mrs. T. Linter, Mr. and Mrs. W. Webster, Mr. and Mrs. Knott, Mr. and Mrs. H. Campbell, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Campbell, Mr. and Mrs. G. Robinson, Mr. and Mrs. McIntosh, Mrs. L. Duval, Mrs. L. Exton, Mrs. Polybank, Mrs. Steele, Miss Hanhouse, Miss Ritchie, Misses Molly Raper, Gracie Sinclair, Baby Beverly Barker, Messrs. A. Mycock, B. Mycock, O. Duval, W. Barker, E. Raper, W. Gregson and Jack Gregson.

Sooke

The highlight of the old-time dance in Sooke Hall, which followed the programme of sports at Sooke River Flats on "All-Sooke Day," Wednesday, was an Edinburgh quadrille contest. The Caledonia Society of Victoria was the winner. Four sets entered the competition, which was judged by Mrs. J. Grant, Mr. J. Burnett and Mr. J. McDonald, of Victoria.

Mr. H. Goodrich, president of the Sooke Community Association, presented a large perpetual cup and a personal cup, donated by that organization, to the Caledonia Society. Mr. Goodrich extended a vote of thanks to everyone who attended the events of "All-Sooke Day," and expects that by next year the new Community Hall, which is the desire of "all Sooke," will be built. This will enable the dancers, who have helped make this project possible by their attendance, enjoy the advantages of a good, spacious floor in a hall which, it is intended, will be one of the best on Southern Vancouver Island.

In Charters Hall, where modern dancing took place, there was also a capacity crowd.

One taste and you're sure
● You need taste only a drop or two of Heinz Vinegar to understand why this pure, sparkling liquid adds so much flavour to salads, dressings and any food requiring vinegar.
● For, a good vinegar should have a bouquet and flavour of its own. Mere sourness will not do. Heinz Vinegars are pure food products; made from choice fruits or grains and matured in wood like fine wine.
● They are economical, too. There's such a difference in tasting flavour and a little goes so far; the extra first-cost is trifling compared with the value of your choice salads and other good foods that cheap vinegars might spoil. (Remember this at pickling time).
● Heinz Pure Olive Oil is from the first pressing, only, of the pick of the olive crop . . . from trees cultivated for many generations near the Heinz plant at Seville, Spain . . . bottled by Heinz to ensure purity.
● Every dressing, every recipe that calls for olive oil calls for Heinz Olive Oil. The moderate difference in cost is more than made up in quality. Ask your dealer for Heinz varieties today.

HERE IS a Startling Test!

To prove to every housewife how ideal Mazola is for deep frying, this startling test was made. First an onion and then delicious doughnuts were fried in the same Mazola, without the slightest trace of flavour being transmitted from one food to the other—proving that Mazola absolutely "seals the flavour in".

Just try Mazola—deep fried foods will have a new delicious flavour that will delight the whole family.

And Mazola is wonderful as a Salad Oil—for Mayonnaise and French Dressings it is ideal. So smooth and easy to mix.

MARVELLOUS FOR SALADS
TRY THESE RECIPES

MAZOLA DRESSING

1 teaspoon mustard
½ teaspoon salt
Few grains cayenne
1 teaspoon Crown Brand Corn Syrup
1 egg
1 cup Mazola
2 tablespoons lemon juice or vinegar

METHOD: Mix dry ingredients. Add Crown Brand Corn Syrup and egg, beat thoroughly, using a dover beater or wooden spoon. Add a few drops of Mazola, beat thoroughly; add a few drops of lemon juice or vinegar. Continue until lemon juice and about one-half of Mazola have been added. Add remaining Mazola in larger quantities. Ingredients should be cold.

MAYONNAISE

1 egg
2 tablespoons Crown Brand Corn Syrup
2 teaspoons dry mustard
1½ teaspoons salt
½ teaspoon paprika
½ cup vinegar
½ cup Mazola
4 tablespoons Benson's Corn Starch
1 cup water

METHOD: Put the egg, Crown Brand Corn Syrup, seasonings, vinegar and Mazola in a bowl but do not stir. Make a paste by mixing Benson's Corn Starch with ½ cup cold water and add additional ½ cup water. Cook until clear. This is better done in top of double boiler, but it is not necessary. Add the Corn Starch mixture to ingredients in mixing bowl and beat with egg beater. It thickens and combines beautifully.

TWENTY PIERROTS TO GIVE CONCERT

Miss Gladys Mavius' Company to Provide Melody and Dancing On Show Boat

All roads will lead to the Show Boat tonight, according to its captain, when Miss Gladys Mavius, whose inimitable comedy offerings have made such a big hit with Show Boat audiences, leads the twenty talented members of her Royal English Show Boat Pierrots, in two hours of tuneful melody, capricious dancing and restrained humor.

Gladys Mavius is rendering three numbers, new to Victoria, but made popular by her last Winter on the London stages.

ENTIRELY NEW

The Tourist Association reports that tonight's programme is entirely new from the opening chorus to the finale, with no repetition of numbers already presented other than the troupe's well-known theme song "Summer Days Are Here Again."

The show starts promptly at 8 o'clock and early arrival for good seats is advisable.

Attendance has averaged 4,000 to 5,000 a night, with only 2,400 seats available according to the association's secretary.

Live as though life were earnest and life will be so.

CHAPTER VIII

"How long had Rita been dead?" Blackwood asked Dallas good humoredly.

"Less than two hours when the coroner saw her." The chief of detectives gave the information without hesitation. "Figure it out. The police car got there at one-thirty, and she was certainly dead then. The coroner didn't get there till after two. As a matter of fact, she was dead when the housekeeper found her about one o'clock."

Blackwood made a mental calculation. "Then she was probably killed some time between twelve-thirty and one o'clock; and not right at one o'clock, either, if that's when she was found. Well, it certainly narrows down the time." He smiled. "Do you want this hairpin?"

"I may as well take it along," said Dallas. He got up and strode out of the room. "If you find any howitzers or machine guns, you might let me know."

By Jove! reflected Blackwood, the time element was getting interesting. Percy had arrived at a quarter before one. He didn't wonder that the police were eager to find him.

He wandered about the apartment, poking into everything, but without result. The radio announcer's taste was hardly notable. He ran to nudes in pictures and to sentiment in books. But the place was expensively appareled and voluptuously furnished. Blackwood imagined that Dallas thought it pretty swell.

In one of the bedrooms he got under the feet of a pair of strange policemen, disguised as detectives, and was softly cursed. The bathroom, to his disappointment, yielded nothing whatever.

After a time he wound up in the kitchen.

But nothing had been left to indicate a recent occupancy, unless it were the hairpin. If—just for instance—Percy had visited his own rooms, the night before, in the company of a woman, there might possibly have remained some unwashed cups or glasses.

His foot struck sharply against something that rattled against the floor, and he looked down in thoughtful contemplation of a saucer. Just a saucer. A whitish saucer with a band of gold. And a chip off at the side. It was thrust halfway under the kitchen sink.

"Sweet Caroline!" said Riley Blackwood.

Could it be possible?

He glanced around him furtively, then stopped and plucked it swiftly from the linoleum. He sniffed it gingerly, then with a long inhalation. The saucer was quite empty, but it had been used—and it had not been washed. He suspected that it had contained milk.

He touched his tongue against the bowl and made a face of violent distaste, then spat into the sink.

But kittens were clean little animals, he had been told.

He tiptoed to the pantry and peered into the refrigerator. It contained, among other items, a scarcely opened bottle of milk.

"Well, well, well!" murmured Mr. Blackwood. "Is there a detective in the house?"

He executed a brief pas seul, replaced the saucer where he had found it and prepared to leave the place. In the living-room Dallas intercepted him. The big detective was almost purring.

"What luck?" he asked with jovial patronage. "Not taking anything away, I hope."

Blackwood answered the second question. "Not anything," he agreed, and swung open his jacket. "Look me over, Dallas." Then he saw the packet of letters in the detective's hand and asked a question of his own. "What have you got there?"

The chief of detectives thrust the package into his pocket. His smile was a blend of cunning triuhph.

"No statements today," he answered.

"Is that friendly?" asked Riley Blackwood. In his voice there was sorrowful reproach. "May I ask what efforts you are making to find Percy Jones?"

The detective shrugged. "He can't get very far," he boasted. "He may even show up at the studio tonight—when he's thought things over. I've got a man waiting for him."

"I see. And all railroad stations and airports, I suppose, are likewise being watched?"

"Something like that," admitted Dallas amiably. "So if you think you know where he is, you might as well come across."

Blackwood laughed and went away. He was fairly pleased with himself upon the whole. But what was it, he wondered, that Dallas had found? Quite possibly a package of letters written by Rita Wingfield herself. There was no testimony, as yet, that she and Percy had been acquainted, but it was probable enough. Indeed, it was almost certain. By no other hypothesis was suspicion of Percy even plausible. There would have been no point in anybody's involving him—deliberately, at any rate—unless he were acquainted with the girl.

Blackwood strode south in Dearborn Street. Yes, he had been pretty smart himself, he reflected immodestly. As he now read the riddle, Percy Jones had falsified one feature, at least, of his story—that having to do with the Weldon Hotel. Instead of driving to the Weldon, he and the redhead had driven to Percy's rooms. The kitten seemed to prove it. To be sure, he had not found the kitten—but, after all—— A saucer beneath the sink still tasting of milk? And a chipped saucer, at that? Not such a saucer as one would be likely to set before a guest. Therefore, a saucer selected for an animal. Since there was no animal of Percy's own about the place, a visiting animal.

Good work, Riley, old boy.

It was, of course, possible that the pair had been at the apartment all the time that there had been no house with a porcelain doorknob and no Hindu. Everything in its turn, however. There had been a kitten, at any rate; and a kitten was a clue.

He flagged a passing taxicab and gave the driver complicated instructions.

"In and out, you understand? Up one street and down another—slowly—until I tell you to stop. I want to see the houses as we go by."

But it was as he had feared. There were too many old-fashioned houses with porcelain doorknobs, such houses as an artist might find "attractive." Oak Street was literally lined with them. So was Superior. And Percy Jones, he thought, had been rather notably euphemistic in calling them respectable. A lovely prespect. "I beg your pardon, but I am looking for a Hindu and a blue kitten. So sorry. But tell me, madam, do you happen to have a red-headed niece?"

He dismissed his driver and adventured for a time on foot. In one particularly dingy thoroughfare he tried his luck. A little girl of five or six was playing on the sidewalk. Mr. Blackwood put on his most seductive smile.

"Tell me, dear," he questioned winningly, "does anybody around here own one of those lovely blue Persian kittens?"

The child stared blankly.

"A kitten," repeated Blackwood. "A little cat. You know?"

Light leaped into the youngster's eyes. "Once I had a little cat," she smiled.

"I'm sure you did," said Riley Blackwood. "What happened to it, darling?"

"It got broken," answered the child. "Mother dropped it and it got——"

"Broken," said Mr. Blackwood hollowly. "I'm so sorry."

The infant's parents were seated at the window, looking out, and Blackwood moved away. This would never do. He would be arrested as a kidnapper at this rate.

It occurred to him that a janitor might be helpful. There was one smoking in a basement doorway on the opposite side of the street. He hurriedly crossed over.

The janitor had never heard of anybody who owned a blue Persian kitten and had no idea what a Hindu was.

Blackwood realized that it was going to be difficult. "A man with a turban on his head," he started to say, but he choked on a note of hysterical laughter. This was really too silly.

Night was the time for his investigation. Midnight or even later. Approximately the hour at which the kitten had first entered the case—through the window of the redhead's car. Then the conditions, if nothing else, would be the same. Might not the Hindu even be lurking in the darkness? "Fat chance," said Mr. Blackwood. But there would be somebody abroad, at least—or burning a light behind his confounded porcelain doorknob. Somebody who kept such hours habitually, perhaps. Who might know what manner of events went forward in this relatively quiet neighborhood. Good God! Blue kittens and turbaned Hindus must surely be just a little uncommon, even in these haunts of minor poets, painters and musicians. The sight of one or both of them was something somebody should remember.

Night, in any case, however. Away from all this frantic publicity. This pestering of janitors and children. Mr. Blackwood really felt his situation keenly.

Hindus, he recklessly supposed, were fortune tellers—most of them. They sat cross-legged in mysterious rooms and read the future in crystal spheres. A lot of hocus-pocus. But it was quite on the cards that one of them had taken part in last night's mystification.

He strode westward and in Rust Street found a fly-specked drug store and a telephone directory. Were fortune tellers listed? he wondered. They were not. But the druggist proved himself a miracle of information.

What Today Means

"CANCER"

If July 17 is your birthday the best hours for you on this date are from 9:45 to 11:45 a.m., from 2:45 to 4:45 p.m. and from 7:45 to 9:45 p.m. The danger periods are from 7:45 to 9:45 a.m., from 12:45 to 2:45 p.m. and from 9:45 to 11:45 p.m.

Great care must be exercised in all matters of importance this day for the laxity might result in mistakes. Errors of judgment are liable to occur through hasty decisions so think twice before reaching any conclusion. Clerical workers must be careful that a spirit of playfulness during business hours does not get them into hot water. Crude humor and horse-play in social circles are liable to cause loss of popularity. Be your natural self; go to no extremes, and do not indulge in any undue familiarity, if you wish to pass thrugh the day safely. Married and engaged couples, as well as those engaged in making love, will have to stick to the truth, and "nothing but the truth" on this date to keep out of trouble.

If a woman and July 17 is your birthday, you may be too modest regarding your accomplishments. Do not take for granted that your ability is generally recognized—it may pay you to make it tactfully known. It sometimes pays to be your own press agent, if you do not require, or cannot afford the services of a professional "one." It is likely to be through your own efforts that your social or business success will be due. You might be too liberal in money matters. Be thrifty and your bank account will grow. Perhaps it will be wise for you to constantly keep in mind that "you cannot have your cake and eat it, too." You ought to be well mentally equipped to engage in the practice of law, medicine, scientific research or educational work as well as some literary activity. You probably possess all the qualities needed for a woman to be a successful wife.

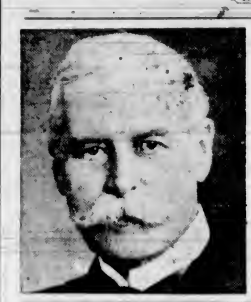

The child born on July 17 during its period of adolescence is liable to be unusually susceptible of forming habits that will stick to it throughout life. Care must be exercised in this respect, so that bad ones will be eradicated, as soon as they are noticeable.

If a man and July 17 is your natal, do not be too "set" in your ways, if you wish to be happy. Marriage is likely to enhance your chances of success. As an agriculturalist, mineralogist, engineer, manufacturer, banker, author artist, or musician, you may gain more than local fame.

RESIGNING MAYOR MADE CITY CLERK

ALBERNI, July 16 (?)—Mayor C J Spratt apparently like the job of city clerk better than that of leader of the city's civic affairs.

Mayor Spratt's resignation was accepted by the Alberni City Council last night to allow him to succeed J. R. Motion, former city clerk, who died last week.

Spratt was city clerk prior to May, 1933, when he resigned to take the office of mayor in a shuffle which saw the then mayor, J. R. Motion, resign to take Spratt's place as clerk.

SMALLEST SHIP

With the fine four-masted bark Abraham Rydberg, originally Hawaiian Isles, making her name in the Australian grain trade, her predecessor, the first Abraham Rydberg, known as the Abraham for some years past, has been sold to scrappers in Sweden. She dates back from 1879 and was one of the curiosities of naval architecture.

In 1879 the wooden ship Abraham Rydberg was built at Carlshamn, being the smallest full-rigged ship in the world. On a length of 101 feet and a beam of just over twenty-two feet she had a gross tonnage of 149, yet had two decks and was very completely fitted to accommodate ninety boys for the training cruises which were practically confined to the Baltic.

The Rydberg was a complete ship in miniature, and for year after year carried on her work until, in 1912, a new Abraham Rydberg was built, a steel-hulled full-rigged ship of 262 tons gross, and the old vessel was renamed Abraham. She was then reduced to bark rig and sold to a small Finnish owner for trading in the Baltic.

LONGSHOREMEN PLAYING TODAY

Waterfront Workers Will Make Merry at Elk Lake Pleasure Grounds

Victoria waterfront workers are taking a day off today. Fortunately there are no freight-carrying ships arriving; for they would either have to remain idle or pay double time for the services of any men who might be required in connection with their discharging or loading.

Members of the Victoria Longshoremen's Association and their friends will spend the day picnicking at Elk Lake. They are leaving town early today and will remain on the picnic grounds as long as it is light.

The Victoria Longshoremen's Association is now in flourishing shape. At the annual meeting held recently, the following officers were elected and installed: President, James Lackie; secretary, N. Scott; directors, Graham Harris, A. Simpson, E. Wolfe, Jack Harris and F. Snelling.

Cowboy Skipper Splintered Spinnaker Boom in Long-Distance Race

SANTA MONICA, Cal., July 16 (AP).—Buck Jones' Sartarita, second largest yacht in the California-Honolulu windjammer classic, is racing with a spinnaker boom splintered by a heavy storm, a message to the Associated Press said today.

The movie cowboy, skippering his eighty-five-foot craft, did not give his position, but reported:

"Bad storm last night. Waves twenty-five feet high smashed the spinnaker boom and catried it overboard. Took all hands to get it back. It is fifty-two feet long. Everybody O.K. and confident."

C. Harton Singer's eighty-six-foot schooner, Navigator, jumbo of the racing fleet, reported her position yesterday as 775 miles from Diamond Head, Oahu. July 4 was the starting date.

MAIL DAMAGED ON RIVER BOAT

Impossible to Determine Addresses on Letters and Parcel Ownership

DAWSON, Y.T., July 16 (CP).—Mail from the steamer Casca, which sank at Rink Rapids in the Yukon River on July 9, arrived here today badly damaged by water and silt.

Labels on hundreds of parcels were lost and it is impossible to determine addresses.

It is estimated thirty sacks of first and second class mail floated away after the accident and have not been recovered.

Authorities advise that letters and parcels thought to have been on the last trip of the Casca be duplicated by the senders.

Arctic Expedition to Move Baffin Eskimos

Twelve Eskimo families are being moved this Summer from Dundas Harbor, Devon Island, where they were sent from Baffin Island posts two years ago to form a new settlement on remote Arctic Bay, Brodeur Peninsula, on Admiralty Inlet. This is part of the scheme of the Canadian Government to settle the Arctic Islands. The annual expedition aboard the Hudson's Bay Ss. Nascopie, which left Montreal on Tuesday of this week, will carry the Eskimos. (1) Some of the Eskimo women and children; (2) the Ss. WILL SERVE AS TRAINING SHIP

Senior Pilots of Company Will Get Experience on Locheed Electra

With the delivery of the ten-place Locheed Electra plane to Major D. R. McLaren today in California, Canadian Airways, of which he is the Pacific Coast superintendent, will have the most modern passenger job in Canada. It will be used on a double daily service between Vancouver and Seattle, and will serve as a training ship for the pilots who will eventually be flying Canadian mail across Canada.

Air-Commodore Herbert Hollick-Kenyon will come to the Coast to assist in operations. Each of the senior pilots of the company in various parts of Canada will take his turn as co-pilot with E. P. H. Wells, who will be the senior pilot on the Electra.

Special new equipment, including special radio, rapid-rising wheels, and lights will be fitted on the plane, which will have accommodation for two pilots in addition to the passengers. The plane is equipped with wing-flaps, enabling it to land at sixty-four miles an hour. A new beam wireless station at Sea Island is also in line to be completed by Fall.

OLYMPIA YACHTS ENTER FOR RACE

Among Washington's Capital's Representatives Will Be Former Winner of Trophies

OLYMPIA, July 16 (AP).—Four trim Olympia pleasure boats, headed by Ernest Mallory's Pamanus will participate in the ninth annual international cruiser race between Seattle and Nanaimo, starting tomorrow.

In five starts in the race, Mallory's Pamanus has won the over-all prize once; twice captured the Class I prize and once taken the Class II first award.

The object is to reach Nanaimo at 4 p.m., Saturday, traveling at a constant motor speed. Pilots must select their starting time accordingly.

Other Olympians planning to enter the race are Ray Clifford, with the thirty-eight-foot cruiser Barnacle, formerly owned by Joe Patton, Seattle; Joe Speckert with his fifty-foot Speck, and W. B. McDonald with his forty-five-foot Saranac.

Plane Pilot Has Been Increasing Mileage of Late

Pilot Maurice McGregor, who flies Canadian Airways plane on the daily schedule between Victoria and Vancouver, is piling up his air-mileage total these days. Some days he doubles up on the run, and occasionally sandwiches in charter trips between them.

During the present week so many important charters were offered the company, it was necessary to cancel the trip across the Gulf for one day. Late Wednesday Pilot McGregor flew a party of cannery officials to Rivers Inlet, where they went to talk with striking fishermen, returning on Thursday, and earlier in the week he made a hurried hop to Port Alice.

POINT ELLIS JOB FINISHED BY CITY

A complete new floor has been laid on Point Ellice Bridge, and yesterday, resurfacing with sheet asphalt was completed. Repainting Johnson Street Bridge was included in 1936 city estimates. Parts of the superstructure will be treated in the near future.

At an estimated cost of $2,200, attempts will be made to eliminate a number of rough spots on Pandora Avenue from Oak Bay Junction to Cook Street. A number of defective stringers on the garbage wharf will be replaced, the city engineer's department announced yesterday.

PERFECT DAY FOR RAILWAY

Seventeen Trains Assure Busy Time for Terminal Men at Vancouver

Today is going to be a perfect day for the C.P.R., one of those days which railroaders dream about but very rarely realize in this end of the country. Over 178 cars will make up seventeen trains to run in and out of the Canadian Pacific depot in Vancouver, starting at a.m. and continuing throughout the day until 10:30 p.m. This includes second sections of regular trains and special trains to accommodate returning Gladiolus Society members and Shriners returning to their native haunts following the successful Imperial conclave in Seattle.

This exceptionally heavy rail movement will start with the departure of train No. 10, more familiarly known as the Huntingdon local, as 8 a.m., getting under way as the trans-continental de luxe Mountaineer arrives. At 9 a.m., regular train No. 3, the Dominion, will arrive, followed by a second section at 9:20 a.m., accommodating thirty-nine members of the Burlington Tours party. Train No. 2, another trans-continental flyer, will whistle its way to an incoming stop at 9:30 a.m., which is also expected to be followed on a twenty-minute block by a second section. Ten minutes later the Kettle Valley train will arrive. A special train made up for the 175 members of the Ansar Temple will leave for the East at 12:30 noon.

DAY REALLY BEGINS

Peace will pervade until 5 p.m., when the Huntingdon local will arrive with nothing intervening until 6:15 p.m., when the day really begins, with the departure of regular train No. 12 at that time.

An hour later the regular No. 4 leaves for the East, followed by a second section twenty minutes later, carrying seventy-five members of the Irem Temple on their way to Banff and Lake Louise for a day's stay before continuing eastward. Ten members of the Rameses Temple and twenty-six Shriners of the Midian Temple, will leave along with regular passengers on regular train No. 14, the Mountaineer, at 8 p.m., with a twenty-minute-later special train carrying returning members of the Regina Gladiolus Society, who have spent the past two weeks on the Coast. This will be the last movement of the Gladiolus members.

SHRINERS' TRAINS

Two "green" and "pink" special trains, carrying 400 Shriners of the popular Zuhrah Temple, will leave at 9 p.m. and 9:20 p.m., respectively, these two specials having reached Vancouver four hours earlier, via the Sumas Gateway.

Train No. 1, reaching Vancouver from Montreal, will arrive at 10:30 p.m. and will close the day. Canadian Pacific employees and officials, whose duty it is to handle train equipment and movements, will do likewise.

BARGAIN RATES FOR VACATION

National Road Is Offering Special Fare to Jasper National Park

An unusual opportunity for a Summer vacation jaunt is offered to residents of Victoria, Nanaimo and other Island points by the Canadian National Railways during the week-end of July 24, when it will operate a "bargain fare" excursion to Jasper National Park in the Rockies.

Good for travel in coaches only, this bargain trip will last from Friday to Tuesday, affording travelers a long week-end stay for golf and other sports. Special rates at Jasper Park Lodge have been put in effect for the occasion. Excursionists will leave Vancouver July 24 at 6.45 p.m., returning leave Jasper, July 28, at 1:10 p.m., allowing a stay of almost four days at the mountain resort. Children between the ages of five to twelve years are entitled to travel at half fare for the low fare bargain trip.

Fishing in the park is now opened for the season. No licence fee is charged, although the angler must apply for a permit at the Jasper headquarters of the park. Near Jasper there is excellent fishing for dolly varden, rainbow and lake trout. Farther afield are found excellent speckled, brook and Kamlops trout.

SORROW

Flows through your life with peace-destroying power,
And dearest things are swept from sight forever,
Say to your heart each trying hour:
"This, too, will pass away."

Nova Scotia Mariner Plans To Sail Small Craft to Pacific Coast

HALIFAX, July 16 (CP).—Brilliant sunshine and a spanking breeze favored William C. Crowell, of Dartmouth, N.S., today as he pointed his twenty-three-foot sailboat out of the harbor on a projected 17,000-mile voyage to British Columbia.

Crowell's only companion on the long journey around the North American coastline is "Togo," a pet dog.

The master mariner said he had been planning the voyage for the past seven years, but an accident, which left him partly crippled five years ago delayed his plans. He constructed the tiny craft himself.

TWENTY YEARS AT SEA

Still affected a little by the accident, the fifty-five-year-old adventurer is confident of reaching his destination. He spent twenty years at sea, sailing the old square riggers.

The boat, christened the Queen Mary, was built in his workshop and is similar to the type used by coastal fishermen. The Queen Mary measures 23 feet 9 inches over all, with a 17-foot bottom, beam of 6 feet 3 inches and depth, aft, of 31 inches.

WELL EQUIPPED

Completely outfitted nautically, the vessel has a bunk in the compact cabin and a stove. Ketch-rigged, she has twenty-eight yards of sail with a twelve-foot topsail.

Skipper Crowell said he planned to drop bottles containing his position on the first day of each month.

The master mariner will sail his vessel down the Atlantic Coast to the Panama Canal. He will pass through there and head up the Pacific.

Party On Way West

WINNIPEG, July 16.—Senator F. P. O'Connor, of Toronto, accompanied by his daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Fitzgibbons and Arthur Slaght, K.C., M.P., for Parry Sound, passed through Winnipeg this morning on their special car attached to the Canadian National Continental Limited.

Senator O'Connor's party is on a purely holiday trip and will remain over for a short stay at Jasper Park Lodge. The party will arrive at the coast on Sunday morning.

THRILLING DRAMA NOW AT DOMINION

"Border Flight," Story of Coast Guards, Current Feature—Good Cast Seen

A war against fur smugglers, carried on high above the clouds by members of one of the Government's most danger-courting enforcement branches, the coast guard air corps, is the theme of "Border Flight," scheduled to open today at the Dominion Theatre.

The picture is the first in Hollywood history to be based on the exploits of this small band of daring pilots. Officers of the California branch of the corps acted as technical advisers for the filming.

Dog-fights between planes of the corps and smugglers' planes, hand-to-hand fighting, and thrill-packed shots of machine-gun battles in the sky and on the ground keep the tale moving at a fast rate.

Three plane crashes, one of them brought about when a pilot makes a deliberate power-dive from high in the air to smash into an enemy boat, add to the thrills.

The story's romance centres around John Howard and Grant Withers, friends of training school days assigned to the same corps, and Frances Farmer, sweetheart of Howard. Withers, a happy-go-lucky pilot, attempts to gain Miss Farmer's attentions. In the course of his aerial courtship he is dismissed from the service for stunting.

The plot gains dynamite when Withers and Howard find themselves on opposite sides in the smugglers' war.

Adding comedy to the film is Roscoe Karns, veteran of "Wings," who is cast as a corps mechanic. Karns takes to the air in the punch ending, joining a fight-to-finish with the smugglers in the nick of time. Robert Cummings appears as a young flyer who dies in action, and Samuel S. Hinds as commander of the corps.

POWERS OF CITY ARE QUESTIONED

Judgment Reserved in Case of Arthur Buller Charged With Breaking Harbor By-Law

Whether the city has the right to legislate over waters of the Inner Harbor was argued in city police court yesterday, when Arthur Buller, employee of a local sightseeing firm, appeared on a charge of soliciting business from a motorboat, while a passenger ship was entering the harbor. Magistrate George Jay reserved judgment until next Tuesday.

Appearing for Mr. Buller, Alexis Martin contended the city only had power to legislate in areas in which it was given powers by provincial statute. He claimed that, under the statute, the city could not legislate for these waters.

Mr. Martin further claimed that even assuming the city had the power, the clause of the by-law was drawn as if the whole harbor was included, and this point rendered the clause ultra-vires.

Mr. Harrison asserted an amendment to the Municipal Act gave the city power to legislate "generally for the good rule and government of the municipality in relation to subject matters of the previous sections of the act."

CANADIAN XI VICTORIOUS IN ENGLAND

Matthews' Cricketers Score First Victory of Tour Against Hampstead

LONDON, July 16 (C.P.)—Victor over Hampstead Cricket Club by 55 runs in a half-day match today, Hon. R. C. Matthews' Canadian team turned in the first win of its English tour. The Dominion representatives impressed with their showing in all departments of the game and hit up 241 runs for six wickets (declared) against their opponents' 186.

The fixture was originally arranged as a practice match for a week ago. Previously the Canadians played drawn games with Richmond and Rugby School, the latter being the first official contest of the tour.

Batting first on a soft wicket, Mr. Matthews' eleven quickly demonstrated their superiority as batsmen. Ken Ross, McGill University and Westward, Montreal, ran up 66 before he was caught for the highest score of the day. E. S. Loney, former Derbyshire player, made 50; Gordon Percival, Toronto Rosedale, 43 not out, and David E. Carey, Vancouver, 30.

Loney's leg-spinners proved too much for the Hampstead men, and he captured seven wickets for 54 runs. His colleague on the Toronto team, Ted Carlton, got two for 65. The score card:

Lon Warneke Blanks Boston in Ten-Inning Pitching Duel With Cantwell

Ace Pitcher Puts Chicago Two Full Games in Lead

Allows Bees Only Four Hits to Gain 1-0 Verdict to Stretch Team's Margin Over Cardinals—St. Louis Again Loses to Phils—Yankees Widen Lead by Defeating Tigers

NATIONAL LEAGUE

CHICAGO, July 16 (AP).—Lon Warneke pitched a ten-inning shutout today to give the first-place Cubs a 1-0 victory over the Boston Bees and the Chicago team its fourth consecutive triumph.

Warneke bested Ben Cantwell, yielding but four hits over the route, while the Cubs made seven off Cantwell, two of them in the tenth when Billy Herman singled to drive Billy Jurges home with the winning run. Jurges had doubled.

It was the second straight shutout credited to the Cubs and gave their pitchers a record of having allowed but one run in the last thirty-eight innings against the Bees and Giants.

Cards Shuffled Again

ST. LOUIS, July 16 (AP).—Dizzy Dean faltered today, so did the Cardinals, and the Phillies won, 6-2, for the second straight victory in this series.

The great Cardinal pitcher was making his first start since a line drive from the bat of Burgess Whitehead, Giant infielder, hit him on the head and knocked him unconscious last Saturday, and showed he was not yet ready for duty. He gave up seven hits in the five innings he toiled, including Leo Norris' fourth inning home run which drove in three runs and put Philadelphia into a lead it never relinquished.

Today's defeat was Dean's sixth of the season against fourteen victories. It also dropped the Cardinals two full games behind the first-place Cubs who nosed out Boston, 1-0, in ten innings.

Giants Come Through

PITTSBURGH, July 16 (AP).—Mel Ott stepped up in an eighth-inning pinch today with a mate on base and blasted out his seventeenth homer to give the New York Giants a 7-6 decision over the Pirates in a free hitting battle.

Eight pitchers were called into service—five by the Giants and three by the Pirates.

AMERICAN LEAGUE

NEW YORK, July 16 (AP).—The Yankees overcame the Tiger threat for the second straight day today, coming through with a 5-2 decision to increase their circuit lead to ten games and club the Detroit back into third place in the American League.

Johnny Broaca limited the Tigers to eight hits as the Yanks made it two out of three over the world's champions.

With Cleveland defeating Philadelphia, the Tigers were shoved back into third place by half a game, as the Indians took over the runner-up berth.

BOSTON, July 16 (AP).—Jimmy Foxx registered his twenty-fifth and twenty-sixth homer of the season today when the stumbling Red Sox split a double-header with the lowly St. Louis Browns. The visitors won the opener, 6-3, against "Lefty" Grove, and dropped the second, 5-4, when the Red Sox put on a ninth-inning rally.

PHILADELPHIA, July 16 (AP).—Johnny Allen pitched the Cleveland Indians into second place in the American League today, shutting out the Athletics with five hits, 7-0, as Detroit lost to New York.

Allen was in trouble on only two occasions, the third and the eighth, but fast fielding pulled him through.

Sox Defeat Senators

WASHINGTON, July 16 (AP).—Although outhit by the Senators, the Chicago White Sox made the most of their hits here today to defeat Washington, 9-7, for their second straight victory.

Chicago was off to a four-run lead in the second inning when they knocked Pete Appleton out of the box. A big splurge in the fifth and sixth innings brought Washington seven runs and sent the Senators into the lead, but Chicago came back in the seventh to score two runs on four walks and a double by Hayes.

COAST LEAGUE

SAN DIEGO, Calif., July 16 (AP).—With the tying run on second, Lou Koupal fanned pinch hitter Chick Shiver for the final out in the ninth and the Seattle Indians gained a 3 to 2 victory over the San Diego Padres here today that gave them the odd contest of the three-game series.

Homer Wins Game

SAN FRANCISCO, July 16 (AP).—Manager Bill Sweeney's home run in the eighth broke a tie and enabled Portland to defeat the Missions, 6-5, here today.

Portland went into the lead with a four-run rally off four hits in the first half of the sixth, but the Missions came back to tie the count at five all with two runs off three hits.

Scenes From Recent Canadian Olympic Trials

While Canada's chief Olympic hopes lie in the track events, her field athletes show more promise every year. At left, above, W. H. Bennett, of Taber, Alta., puts the shot 43 feet 7 inches, close to the Canadian record. Sammy Richardson, Toronto's colored "lazy-bones" all-round athlete, did 48 feet 3½ inches in the hop, step and jump, close to his own Canadian record. Centre, the finish of the 1,500-metre race, one of the most exciting on the first day's card, though the times were slow. BELIEVE IT OR NOT - - - - - - By Ripley

EXPLANATION FOR YESTERDAY'S RIPLEY CARTOON

Miracle of Dwanna Lee—On October 25, 1933, little Dwanna Lee Newman, then just two, of Eureka, Utah, had the narrowest kind of escape from death. The little tot was crossing the D. & R.G.W. tracks when she was hit by a freight train traveling at a speed of about twenty miles per hour. The locomotive pilot knocked her ten feet in the air, she alighted on the cross-ties exactly between the rails and the entire freight train passed over her. A Eureka resident, Gordon Tindar, was close enough to see exactly what happened, but not close enough to rescue the little girl. When picked up, she was found to be unconscious, but soon revived, and examination disclosed the fact that aside from a bump on the forehead, she was uninjured. And Believe It or Not, the little spoon with which she was playing at the time was cut in two by the train wheels, yet she still clasped the spoon handle in her tiny hand when brought home.

Deaf-Mute Speaks Three Languages—Though classified as a deaf-mute, Miss Lalla Lee, of Ossian, Iowa, has command of three languages—English, German and Norwegian. Her voice is not especially strong, but can be heard and is readily intelligible. And though she cannot hear, she "lip-reads" the same three languages.

Miss Lee was born in Norway, came to the United States at a very tender age, and became deaf in childhood. At the Lutheran School in North Detroit she was taught to read, write and speak German. Next she attended the State School in Council Bluffs, where she learned English, and later she attended Gallaudet College in Washington. Her parents have never known any language except Norwegian, so Lalla was obliged to master that tongue also.

The term "deaf-mute" does not necessarily imply total inability to hear or speak, but rather those who are deaf from childhood whether able to articulate or not, and whether deafness is total or not."

LOUIS WANTS TO TAKE ON MAXIE BAER

Negro Heavyweight Anxious To Meet Former Champion in Chicago

By CHARLES DUNKLEY
Associated Press Sports Writer.

CHICAGO, July 16 (AP).—Joe Louis wants to start his comeback campaign in September with Max Baer as his opponent and Soldier Field, Chicago, as the proving ground.

The co-managers of the Brown Bomber, Julian Black and John Roxborough definitely made this decision today. They urged Mike Jacobs, head of the Twentieth Century Sporting Club, to capture Baer if possible. If the match is made they want the same promotional setup which handled the Louis-Levinsky fight in Comiskey Park last September. Joe Foley of Chicago, in co-operation with Jacobs, was the promoter. That fiasco, with Levinsky surrendering in the first round, drew 39,000 spectators with gross receipts of $214,000.

MAX BAER

"We want Baer," Black said. "There is nobody else on our mind. Louis feels the same way about it. We won't have any trouble about the terms. There is only one place for the fight. That is Chicago. Chicago fans have never seen Louis in a major match, and they have never seen Baer in a bad one."

WAS AFTER LOUIS

Baer roared out of retirement shouting defiance at Louis, no sooner than Schmeling had knocked out the negro heavyweight in twelve rounds. Since then, however, the Livermore Adonis has been neglecting the Louis intelligence corps, and little has been heard from him. He is said to have expressed the opinion he would like to fight Braddock or anybody else instead of Louis.

Black figures a Baer-Louis bout in Soldier Field, scene of the memorable Tunney-Dempsey $2,000,000 battle in 1927, might draw close to $500,000. The field can accommodate 110,000.

MAINLANDERS SWEEP EVERY RACE AS BIG MEET IS COMMENCED

Vancouver Rowing Club Displays Fine Form in Capturing All Events on Opening Day's Programme—Victoria Oarsmen Finish Second After Some Very Close Races

VANCOUVER, July 16 (AP).—Vancouver Rowing Club oarsmen made a clean sweep of events today at the opening of the North Pacific and Pacific Coast rowing regatta, forcing Victoria into second place and shutting out altogether the lone American contender.

Knifing their sleek shells through the glassy waters of Coal Harbor, the Vancouverites took the junior singles, 140-pound singles, junior doubles, junior fours and 140-pound doubles, all of which carried N.P.A.A.O. crowns with them. The junior quarter-mile dash also went to the Vancouver club.

The Victorians paced the winners in all events where they competed and in some it was only the breaks which allowed Vancouver the victory. All finishes were close.

Don Lucas, formerly of Nelson and now rowing for V.R.C., started the day for the clubbers in the junior singles event. Lucas opened a lead from the start over Max Winkler and forced the Victorian to pace him for the entire distance. Lucas finished three lengths ahead in 9:40 for the Henley distance of one mile, 550 yards. W. Hornby, another V.R.C. contender, grabbed off third position, two lengths behind Winkler.

Al Hammann, of Portland, the lone American to compete today, was forced into fourth place by the fast-stroking Canadians.

DEFEATS ARNIE MANN

Monty Butler, of V.R.C., better known as Canadian lightweight singles champion, proved too much for Arnold Mann, of Victoria, in the 140-pound singles, drawing away from the Islander for a clear length victory after leading for the entire Henley distance. His time was 7:07 2-5.

After trailing the No. 1 Vancouver crew in the junior doubles for most of the way, the Victoria shell, with J. McDonald at stroke and Max Winkler in the bow, quickly closed the gap between them and the leaders, but the spurt came too late, allowing the Vancouver boat a victory by three-quarters of a length. Vancouver's No. 2 boat was third. The time was 8:54.

Victoria's junior four crew were almost dumped several times in the junior four event over the Henley distance as the wash from passing launches swept over their gunwales, but they hung on and outdistanced Vancouver's No. 2 boat to take second place again. Vancouver's No. 1 crew won the event in 8:20.

CLOSEST OF DAY

The 140-pound doubles event was the closest race of the day. The Victoria shell, stroked by B. Stanell and with B. Ross in the bow position, hung grimly on to the Vancouver shell, manned by the two Canadian Henley champions, Butler and Johnny Dickinson, over the entire Henley distance.

Only a powerful last-minute spurt gave the Mainlanders the victory by a length.

Don Lucas scored his second singles victory of the day in the junior quarter-mile dash, overhauling and taking a length lead over Max Winkler after the latter had spurted to the fore at the crack of the starter's gun.

Dan Moses and his Victoria crew were planning tonight how they would gain a measure of revenge in tomorrow's events, where they meet Vancouver in the senior doubles, novice fours and senior fours, and senior singles.

GOLF FACTS
NOT THEORIES
By ALEX MORRISON

STANCE HAD BY PROPERLY ADDRESSING BALL

Every day incoming questions include something about the stance. Position of the feet is important, but stance can be successfully treated only after other things have been considered.

The feet should be placed in the proper relation to the ball, the line of play and the hips. Of these three items, the hips are more important because any arrangement of the feet that does not afford smooth, easy hip action cannot help your swing.

You can place your feet in approximately the correct position in relation to your hips, the ball as well as the line of play, by following the right order of movement in taking your stance.

1. First place your hands on the club. Take your grip while the club head is on the ground away from the ball.

2. Then place the clubhead on the ground just back of the ball, with the clubface at right angles to the line of play.

3. While the clubhead rests on the ground back of the ball, place your left foot so that the ball is about opposite the heel of this foot.

4. Place your right foot in a comfortable position.

FINE CATCHES AT BRENTWOOD

Jack Springs Plentiful in Cowichan Bay, Parksville And Comox Bay

Salmon and grilse fishing in Saanich Inlet is enjoying its best season in several years, according to local anglers, who have been checking in with record catches for the past few days. The fish are not going as deep as in past years, and may be taken on a pound weight with seventy-five or one hundred feet of line. MacKenzie Bay, the Dutchman's and the Stone House seem to be the favorite spots for the big ones, and many button fish have been captured in or near these centres.

Reports from Up-Island are also encouraging for the sportsman. Cowichan Bay, Parksville and Comox Bay are excellent fishing grounds for spring salmon, jack springs and sea trout.

The bass fishermen are still enjoying their fill of the sport on the local lakes, as evidenced by the large number of catches being taken daily.

VISITOR WINS BUTTON

Peter Jones, sport seeker from Wabash, Indiana, who pulled a silver-button fish from the waters of the Inlet Sunday, stayed over an extra day for a final day's sport Monday, and was rewarded with seven nice catches. Dr. Hughie Clark made a special presentation to Mr. Jones of his silver button Tuesday morning, which also carries a life membership in the Chinook Club. Mr. Jones, who was completely taken with the Island, promised to return next year with a party of friends.

Below are some other fine catches at Brentwood: Len Holyoak got ten averaging from eighteen down to ten pounds. Hugh Creed also landed ten salmon. The largest tipped the scales at seventeen pounds, while the remainder graduated to seven pounds. Two Californians hooked seven, from ten to seventeen pounds. Bill Halliday, fishing with E. Smith, hauled in four averaging ten pounds. A. H. P. Steick landed a twenty-three-pound beauty on a No. 7 imi. is expressing the fish to Dauphin, is expressing the fish to Daughin, Manitoba, where it will be on display at Steick's. Limited, sporting goods and hardware store, before being enjoyed by the Dauphin Coffee Club, of which Mr. Steick is a charter member.

SOUTH AFRICA MARKSMEN WIN MACKINNON TROPHY

Canada Finishes In Second Berth At Bisley Range

Dominion's Rifle Squad Forty Points Behind Winners in Historic Challenge Cup Event—Wales Takes Third Place and England Is Fourth —Spittal Second in Gloucester's Prize

By THOMAS T. CHAMPION
Canadian Press Staff Writer

BISLEY CAMP, Surrey, July 16 (CP). — Canada's marksmen today failed in their bid to recapture the Mackinnon Challenge Cup, and placed behind shots from other parts of the Empire in the Duke of Gloucester's Prize and the Daily Telegraph.

South Africa's team of twelve took the Mackinnon Cup with a score of 1,082. The Canadians, who held the trophy in 1934 and lost it last year to England, finished second with 1,042.

Scores of the other six entrants in this service rifle event were: Wales, 1,036; England, 1,030; Scotland, 1,024; India, 1,019; Guernsey, 994; Ireland, 961.

The scores were considered by old-timers at the National Rifle Association's Bisley meet to be good. Shooting at a smaller target than that of last year, the South Africans made 19 points more than England in her 1935 victory. Canada was tied for third place last year with India, at 1,034, while Scotland finished second at 1,042.

CANADIAN SECOND

Winner of the valuable Duke of Gloucester's Prize was an Old Country marksman, Lieut. J. W. Jackson, of the Durham Light Infantry. Major T. Spittal, of Montreal, placed second with a 68, two short of perfect figures and one point behind Jackson. Major Spittal won £10.

Three shots tied with possible 35's in the Daily Telegraph, fired at 300 yards. The trio, who will shoot off to determine the winner, are W.O. Laban, of the Royal Navy; Lieut. Evans, of the Malay States, and Sergt. D. E. Lewis, of the Fifth Welsh Regiment.

Trailing them by a single point were three Canadians, Capt. S. W. Graham, Major R. S. Harrison and R.S.M. Jim Kiddie, all of Toronto.

Best of the Canadians in the Mackinnon was R.S.M. Kiddie, who had a perfect score of 50 at the first distance, 900 yards, and followed with a 45 at the longer range of 1,000 yards.

Sergt. Jimmy Kier, of Vancouver, the airman member of the Canadian team, fired a 48-46 for a total of 94, only one point behind Kiddie.

The 1930 winner of the King's Prize, Miss M. E. Foster, attached to a British unit, the Women's Legion of Motor Drivers, was eliminated in a shoot-off today to determine the last nineteen among the 300 qualifiers for the second stage. She and a number of others had scores of 96 in the first stage yesterday.

HOW THEY SCORED

Canadian scoring in the Duke of Gloucester and Northland, with the first figure at 300 yards, the second at 600 and the third figure the total, follow:

Major T. Spittal, Montreal, 34-34—68; Lieut. P. J. Martinson, La Tuque, Que., 35-32—67; Lieut. H. Parker, Yarmouth, N.S., 33-34—67; C.S.M. H. Rusk, Ottawa, 35-32—67; Sergt. J. S. SIMO FIRST IN HANDICAP

Romps to Easy Victory in Coquitlam Handicap at Brighouse Track

BRIGHOUSE PARK, VANCOUVER, July 16 (CP).—Simo, of the Richmond Stables, romped home an easy winner in the Coquitlam Handicap, today's feature race, with Don Grant's Help Yourself placing second.

Simo was close to the front at all times and forged ahead when Rose Camp, who finished third, tired. Help Yourself closed strong but did not seriously threaten the winner. Mutuel tickets on Simo paid $4.00, $3.25 and $2.35.

The daily double, from Thrillowisp in the second to Flying Craig in the third, paid $396.85, and the one-two bet, Jim X and Brown Hills, in the sixth race, returned $93.90.

Two horses fell in the fourth, a hurdles race, and Athey remounted Nokuy and placed third. Hodge Podge was first, with Bing Crosby's Lindun second. Hodge Podge paid the highest price of the day, $37.40, $22.40 and $3.65.

Suneur trailed the field for three-quarters of the seventh, then made a gallant bid, but just failed to get by Shasta Dream in a driving finish. Lampasas finished in show position.

Giant Heavy in States

Some idea of the huge bulk of Leon Ketchell, Polish giant, who recently arrived in the United States to try and emulate Primo Carnera's heavyweight triumphs, is given by this picture showing him holding two boxers at the New York gymnasium where he is training. Ketchell stands 7 feet 3 inches and weighs 280 pounds.

Leaps to New Record

They say George Varoff can vault 15 feet if he's pressed. He wasn't pressed at the annual United States track and field championships, and only did 14 feet 6½ inches. Here he is seen clearing the bar at that height for a new world record.

Other bouts on the card are: Frank Clarkson vs. Eric Whitehead; Roy Duval vs. Doug Leask; Phil Mosser vs. Ken Earl; Dickie Reid vs. Billy Knowles and Young Gerry Wilson vs. Young Dowdes.

Hocking Loses To Mainlander In Net Tourney

VANCOUVER, July 16 (CP).—Bud Hocking, of Victoria, lone outsider left in the British Columbia closed courts tennis tournament, was eliminated today, losing out in both the singles and doubles games.

Colin Milne, young Vancouver ace, took the measure of the Victorian in the singles, 6-4, 6-3.

Hocking then teamed with George Sparling to go down to Colin Milne and "Tink" Porter, of Vancouver, in the doubles, 9-7, 6-2.

SIMMONS OUT OF NET PLAY

Shildrick Defeats Armadale Champion in Esquimalt Championships

Defeat of E. T. Simmons, Armadale Club champion, by Shildrick, Hillcrest Club netter, featured yesterday's play in the annual Esquimalt invitation tennis championships at the Hillcrest Club courts.

Captain Cox and Clack, veteran Armadale Club racquet wielders, provided a mild upset when they eliminated Eric Cox and Gerry Bowden, C.P.R. pair, in the men's doubles, after a three-set battle. The scores were, 6-4, 3-6, 6-3.

Trophy Captured by Bobby Mathewson

BOBBY Mathewson, husky free-style star of the Pacific Swimming Club, won the one-mile Wrigley British Columbia championship swim recently at Vancouver. It was his third attempt to lift the prized trophy, pictured above. In addition to winning the distance event, Mathewson stroked his way to victory in the 220 and 440-yard events.

HEAVYWEIGHT MAT CARD IS ALL LINED UP

Six Wrestlers Booked for Show Tomorrow Evening At Tillicum Gym

Clever Pat Fraley, Nebraska heavyweight, who has made two appearances here against Leo Numa Anderson, Seattle matman, was yesterday signed to meet George "Cannonball" Kitzmiller, rugged Portlander, in the semi-wind-up of tomorrow's grappling card at the Tillicum Gymnasium.

Fraley is another of the scientific wrestlers who has made great progress since joining the professional ranks. In his two shows here the Nebraskan has turned in colorful performances and has become popular with Victoria fans.

Tomorrow Fraley will be seen in action against one of the most rugged of the present heavyweight crop, "Wildman" George Kitzmiller, Portland exponent of the wrestling game. The Oregonian, it will be recalled, has turned in many exciting performances here and his return to the local gymnasium assures the fans of a lively evening.

ANDERSON MEETS WASHBURN

"Gentleman" Jack Washburn, Boston, and handsome Leo Numa Anderson, blond-thatched Seattle matman, will match holds in the main event of eight ten-minute rounds. Anderson, a protege of the late Charlie Hanson, Seattle Swede, is rated as one of the leading contenders in the international world championship tournament now in progress at Vancouver.

Larry Bennett, young Portlander, will make his Victoria debut when he climbs over the ropes to meet Louis Newman, local heavyweight, in the special event. The bout will open the card and will commence at 8:45 o'clock.

GIVES TALK TO DOG FANCIERS

Col. McCrae, President of Canadian Kennel Club, Addresses Breeders

Outlining in detail the work of the Canadian Club officials and office staff, Colonel J. H. McCrae, M.C., of Galt, Ontario, president of the C.K.C., addressed approximately thirty-five Victoria dog fanciers yesterday evening at the Y.M.C.A.

W. H. Pym, Vancouver, second vice-president of the Canadian Kennel Club, presided.

The C.K.C., said Colonel McCrae, is one of the twenty-seven organizations under the jurisdiction of the National Livestock Branch, and is the third largest. The Canadian body, according to the genial and well-spoken president is "going places."

WILL MARK DOGS

Starting next year, all dogs for shipment to the United States must be positively identified by means of a tatoo mark, stated Colonel McCrae. The mark will carry a letter and numerals, and will designate the date of birth of the animal and the kennel from which he was purchased.

He told of steps being taken to improve the Canadian Kennel and Bench Magazine, and stated that a new editor has been appointed. He asked the co-operation of all members in the interest of the association and the magazine and was quite emphatic as to the continued success of the Canadian Kennel Club.

In answer to a question from the floor of the meeting Colonel McCrae stated that the British Columbia membership to the C.K.C. made a slight gain last year.

The speaker was accorded a hearty vote of thanks for his interesting address.

NEVES SUSPENDED

Track stewards suspended him for violating the rules in crowding Golden Steeple, Jockey Floyd McCormick up, in the first race yesterday. Golden Steeple was making his bid between the fence and Neves' horse, New Trial, when the latter went over, forcing McCormick to rein in.

Brown Heads Field

C. E. Brown finished with a card of 75-8—67 to capture the men's medal round at the Royal Colwood Golf Club yesterday, being a stroke in front of Ben Hall and Brian Hunnings. Hall scored 88-20—68 and Hunnings had 80-12—68.

Stock and Bond Prices Steady at New York Mart

NEW YORK, July 16 (AP).—Profit-taking was sprinkled over today's stock market but it failed to dampen sentiment on prices to any great extent.

While a number of the leaders were sold on the theory that seven consecutive advancing sessions called for a corrective reaction, the stream of favorable second quarter earnings statements and dividends kept realizing within bounds and brought strength to many specialties.

The Associated Press average of sixty stocks, after slipping about nervously during the greater part of the session, ended up .3 of a point at 66.8, another new top since July 6, 1931. Transfers totaled 1,474,750 against 1,978,244, Wednesday.

The principal steels and motors, with little news either way for these groups, appeared to have settled down for a rest. A few, however, pushed ahead, as did several automobile equipment shares. The utilities found no further inspiration and held only a bit bette than even.

Selling pessure subsided somewhat in United States Government bonds, but the group was the outstanding exception to an otherwise steady listed market.

Movements were uneven in the foreign division. Loans of France, Brazil, Cuba and Rome finished higher. Those of Poland, Germany and Czechoslovakia were lower.

TORONTO GOLDS LOSE GROUND

O'Brien Reaches New High—Rest of List Pinched by Profit-Taking

TORONTO, July 16 (CP).—Late profit-taking bumped most of the gold stocks down on the Toronto Stock Exchange today but base metal shares were in demand and held the tone fairly steady.

Weakness was shown by Central Patricia, Hard Rock, Macassa, Pamour, Perron, San Antonio and Bigwood Kirkland all losing from 5 to 10 cents. McKenzie dropped 16 to 2.05. O'Brien reached 3.44, a new high.

Lamaque contact sold as high as 45 in good volume and Arntfield, Kirkland Lake, Sheep Creek and Granada were higher.

Nipissing advanced 25 to 2.60 though Bear, Castle-Trethewey and Mining Corporation were down.

Price Changes Mixed In Quiet Trading at Eastern Exchanges

MONTREAL, July 16 (CP).—Heavy selling of papers failed to shake the stock market trend today, but traders were selective in their buying. The close was irregular.

Liquidation hit the papers in the final hour and at the finish minor losses were posted for Bathurst, Dryden, Howard Smith, St. Lawrence Paper preferred and St. Lawrence Corp. Lone firm issue, Smith preferred, jumped 3 points to 95.

Noranda touched 60, best level since 1929, but profit-taking brought the price down again to 59 3-4, up 1-4 net. Hollinger firmed 1-8 and Smelters lost that much.

C.P.R. advanced 3-4 to 13 1-2. Canada Car preferred advanced 1-4 to 18 3-4.

Montreal Power firmed 1-8 at 31 1-8. Brazilian and Quebec Power eased narrowly. Distillers-Seagrams was 3-8 higher.

TORONTO EXCHANGE

TORONTO, July 16 (CP).—Interest was at a minimum in today's Toronto Stock Exchange session. Quietest industrial week-day market since early June, and only two listings traded over 1,000 shares.

C.P.R. was up 1-2 at 13 3-8; Consolidated Smelters added 1-2 to close at 54; Distillers Corporation-Seagrams, volume leader, gained 3-4 to 22 3-4.

Supertest gained 7-8 to sell at 35 1-2. International Petroleum and McColl preferred ended with smaller gains, and Imperial, McColl and British American Oil were about steady.

WHEAT PRICES GAIN ONE CENT

Adverse Crop Reports and Export Demand Stiffens Winnipeg Values

WINNIPEG, July 16 (CP).—Wheat futures prices hesitated after an early climb on the Winnipeg Grain Exchange today but showed gains of 1 1-4 to 1 cent at the close of trading.

Adverse crop reports and good export demand put the bullish traders in control early. Weakness inspired by Chicago hedging pressure and profit-taking came late and cut the gains from the high points of 2 1-2 to 2 cents.

Values at the close showed July "A" 94 1-2, October 93 3-4 to 93 7-8 and December 93 5-8.

Export business estimated at approximately 1,500,000 bushels marked the session.

Prairie weather conditions were a strong bullish factor, with negligible precipitation and high temperatures being general.

Liverpool closed 1 5-8 to 1 7-8 higher and Buenos Aires showed a 7-8 to 1-4 cents advance at noon.

BRUINS DEFEAT BARBERS 3 TO 2

Get Lucky Victory in Calvert Cup Softball—Silent Glows Triumph—Tigers Win by Default

Painter's Bruins and Silent Glows triumphed yesterday evening in first-round fixtures of the Calvert Cup play.

Playing at the Memorial Park, Bruins eked out a 3-2 victory over the Bell Barbers, while at Victoria West Park, Silent Glows gained a 10-7 verdict over the Victoria Longshoremen.

Tigers, billed to play the Vacs at the Royal Athletic Park, won the fixture by default, when the latter club failed to field a team.

Costly errors by the Bell Barbers enabled the Bruins to chalk up a lucky victory at Memorial Park. Ray Hough pitched two-hit ball for the losers, and with any kind of support would have won the fixture.

Score by innings:
Bell Barbers .... 000 010 100—2
Painter's Bruins .... 100 110 00x—3

Batteries — Hough and Cooper; Simpson, Turner and Berry.

JOKERS ELIMINATED

Playing like champions, Esquimalt Meat Market, "C" section titleholders, swamped the Jokers, 10-3, in a Calvert Cup fixture at Bullen Park.

After three scoreless innings the Esquimalt boys opened their offensive in grand style and drove "Kelly" Comerford from the mound in the sixth frame. Archie McBride followed, only to meet with little success.

Score by innings:
Jokers .... 000 010 011— 3
Esquimalt M.M. .... 000 122 14x—10

Batteries — Comerford, McBride and Evans; Watt and Cooper.

Overcoat Is Favored

LONDON, July 16 (CP).—H. L. Selby's Overcoat, a five-year-old, was favorite for the Steward's Cup at 100 to 9 in tonight's call over. Lord Nunburnholme's Dancing Comet was 12 to 1, W. Keep's Voltus 100 to 8 and J. Solomon's Oo-er 20 to 1.

Dancing Comet is a three-year-old. Voltus a four-year-old and Oo-er a six-year-old. The Stewards' Cup, six-furlong sprint, will be run at Goodwood, July 28.

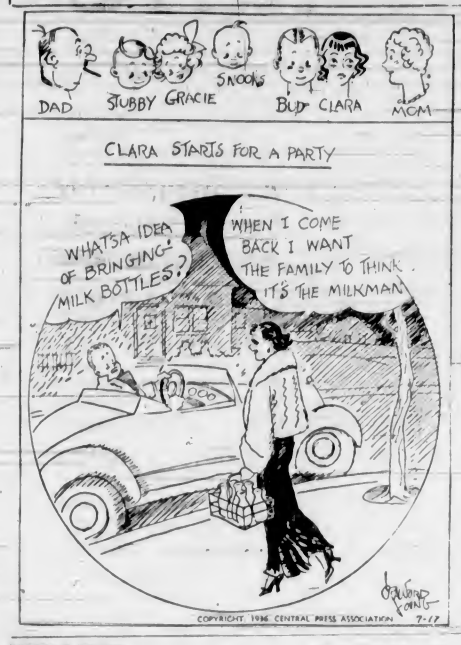

Reg Whitcombe Wins

DUBLIN, July 16 (AP).—Reginald Whitcombe, English professional, today won the Irish Open golf championship with a seventy-two-hole total of 281. W. H. Davies was second with 283.

How It Started

By JEAN NEWTON

"THE WORLD IS COMING TO AN END"

"I wish," the ill-starred Oscar Wilde is reported to have remarked to Whistler, about one of the latter's particularly clever aphorisms, "that I had said that."

"Don't worry," rejoined the famous painter, "you will, my dear Oscar, you will."

Next best to originating a sapient epigram is quoting it.

Nature, in her inscrutable wisdom, has decreed that we cannot all be firsts, but by showing our appreciation, by imitation, we can be good and close seconds.

This people have for a long time done and been in connection with the statement, "The world is coming to an end"—a common complaint whose earliest recorded appearance was — count them — four thousand six hundred and thirty years ago.

You cannot prove it by us, but it is maintained by Dr. Stanley Jones, author of "The Christ of the Indian Road," that this is the translation of an Assyrian tablet inscribed twenty-seven centuries before the Christian era, now in a museum in Istanbul:

"Our earth is degenerate in these latter days. There are signs that the world is speedily coming to an end. Children no longer obey their parents. Everybody wants to write a book. The end of the world is evidently approaching."

Jane Dixon Says:

ROUND-UP DAY PROBLEMS INCLUDE THE GIRL WHO HATES THE WRONG PERSON, THE MOTHER WHOSE "FRIENDS" CRITICIZE THE SIZE OF HER FAMILY, AND THE THREE GIRLS WHO TAKE THE MATTER OF "ATTRACTING BOYS" TOO SERIOUSLY

We're off for another round-up, and it looks as though we have a good day for it.

So, let's sound boots and saddles!

Heart-Broken: A message to you from Mrs. B., sixty-six years of age, mother of four grown children any mother could be proud of.

Mrs. B. writes: I've traveled the same road as you. I knew my husband didn't love me or the children. He was a philanderer at heart and in fact. My self-respect and the respect of the public outweighed all else, so no one except myself ever knew of my battle. Do only that which will allow you to have trust and confidence in yourself and you will reclaim your happiness.

Mrs. C. H.: Sorry, but I cannot divulge the name of the person you want to contact. It is against the policy of this column to do so. If there is another way I can serve you, I shall be glad to do so.

These Three: Don't take the problem of "attracting and keeping the attention of boys" too seriously. There will be plenty of time to solve it when you graduate from your school, and I'll guarantee that you'll be more attractive to the "well-bred, better type of boy," and that you will receive more attention from them than do the girls who have mixed their school books with puppy love and who have grown stale while you have been preparing yourselves for future happiness.

A FORTUNATE MOTHER

Mrs. E. H.: You are very fortunate to have so many sons and daughters and an income of $49 a week. Never mind about what your so-called friends say about the size of the family you should have. The fact is that you have nine sons and four daughters. Don't cry about what you can not do for them by way of amusement. They will find it for themselves. You're doing a splendid job in keeping your family together, feeding and clothing your children.

Good luck to you, mother of many sons and daughters, and the next time your friends (?) tell you what you should have done, ask them what they have done for posterity. Your bairns will have plenty of time to visit beaches, picture shows and the like. So dry your tears and keep your eyes on the promise of things to come.

Margaret: The color of your eyes, your hair, the fact you are so high and weigh so many pounds is immaterial. The important thing is that you have made a mistake, and that you consider defaulting on the payment rather than making an effort to pay. Do not argue with your mother who wants to "put you out" of her home. Don't argue with the young man who is responsible for your condition, nor with members of his family. Go to the courts in your community, to the ministers of the churches. Ask them to help you solve your problem. It is their duty—it should be their privilege to extend this help. If they fail you let me know. Give me names, addresses and offices.

Fem: You have misunderstood the purpose of this column. It does not undertake to find for its readers the places they might like to live. It is very lucky, indeed, if it can help them to live happily in the places they find for themselves.

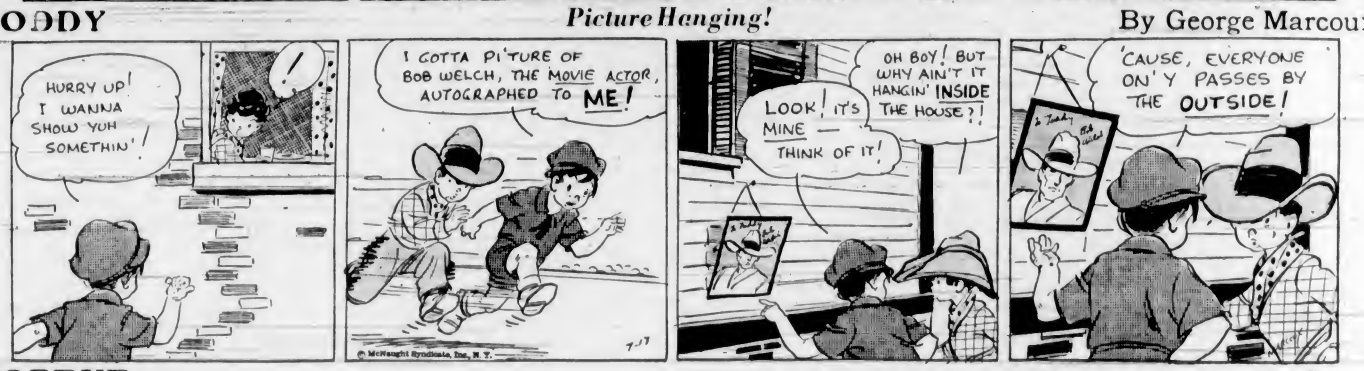

"I": You are despising the wrong person. Why despise the girl when the young man has behaved so despicably? He is not in love with you. If he were, he would not have left you for the girl you blame for his deflection. The girl friend, who advises you to "fight back," is mistaken. When a man really loves you it is not necessary to "beat" the other woman to his affections. My advice to you is to regard the young man as a friend—at a distance.

CANADIANS TO LEAVE TODAY

Dominion's Olympic Contingent Off for Berlin—Victorians Going

MONTREAL, July 16 (CP).—The main party of Canada's Olympic team, ready to shoot for Olympic titles at Berlin in eleven divisions, will sail from here tomorrow morning on the Duchess of Bedford. More than 100 athletes, officials, coaches and newspapermen will make up the party.

Six days before the games open, August 1, the Canadians will settle in what has been called the most sumptuous Olympic village yet devised. They will disembark from the steamer at Havre, France, and travel to Berlin by train.

British Columbia members who will leave with the team are:

Women's Track and Field—Margaret Bell, Vancouver.

Men's Swimming — Bob Hooper, George Byers, George Athens, Vancouver; Percy Norman, coach, Vancouver.

Women's Swimming Team—Phyllis Dewar, Joan Langdon, Lynda Adams, Vancouver; Noel Oxenbury, New Westminster.

Lethbridge Wins From Kimberley

LETHBRIDGE, Alta., July 16 (CP).—Defenders of the Alberta football title, Lethbridge Supinas tonight won a place in the provincial final by defeating the Kimberley, B.C., eleven, 5-0. Bill Knight, centre forward, led the "soops" to victory by scoring three goals. Johnny Truman and Shorty Summer tallied the others.

Although Kimberley fielded a husky crew who used their weight at every opportunity, their kick and run tactics were no match for the dribbling and combination play of the Alberta champions. Their play in front of the goal was their most noticeable weakness.

Little Stories for Bedtime
The Most Wonderful Babies in the World
By THORNTON W. BURGESS

Danny was sure and Nanny just knew
Such wonderful babies ne'er before grew.

Funny, isn't it, how wonderful babies are? They really are, you know. But the funniest thing of all is how each papa and mamma think their babies the most wonderful babies that ever lived or ever will live. There were Mr. and Mrs. Peter Rabbit. They thought and they said that there never had been such babies as Fuzzy, Wuzzy, Little Pete and Little Jed, about whom you all know. And there was Johnny and Polly Chuck up in the far corner of the Old Orchard. They thought and they said that their babies were the most wonderful in all the world. And there were Unc' Billy Possom and old Mrs. Possum. You only had to look at them when Mrs. Possom took their nine babies out for an airing in her big pocket to know what they thought. Why, I suspect that you and I were once the most wonderful babies in all the Great World, and I haven't the least doubt that freckle-faced Farmer Brown's Boy was, too. (Of course he didn't have freckles then.)

Another funny thing is how every baby is beautiful. You ask any papa and mamma if their baby isn't beautiful. You'll find it is, even though you were quite sure yourself that it isn't. You see, love is such a beautiful thing in itself that to those who possess it all things become beautiful. So perhaps this accounts for the fact that the most wonderful and the most beautiful babies in all the Great World lay squirming helplessly on the bed of soft grass in the house that Danny and Nanny Meadow Mouse had built in the middle of the pile of old corn stalks on the edge of Farmer Brown's cornfield.

"There never were such babies!" exclaimed Danny, as he looked at the four tiny, naked mites, who hadn't even got their eyes open yet.

"Of course not," replied Nanny promptly. "Aren't they dears? And just think—they're ours—yours and mine."

"And they are so beautiful," replied Danny. "Did you ever see such beautiful babies in all your life?"

"I never did and I don't believe anyone else ever did, either," said Nanny, and she really meant it.

Now that was because she saw them with eyes of love. You wouldn't have seen anything beautiful about them. In fact, you would probably have called them the homeliest babies you ever had seen. You see, they didn't even have little fur coats to make them look like real Meadow Mice. But to Danny and Nanny they were beautiful and wonderful. When Danny had looked and looked and admired them to his heart's content Nanny sent him out of the house. She said there wasn't room for him and that he was in the way. When he wanted to do something for them she said that there wasn't anything he could do except to keep out of the way and out of trouble.

So rather disconsolately Danny went out and sat on the door step. What was the good of being a father if you couldn't do anything for your children and their mother wouldn't even let you sit around and admire them? Then he had a bright thought that cheered him up wonderfully. They must be hungry. He would go get something especially nice for them to eat. So off he started to hunt for something especially nice. He cut some of the tenderest, juiciest young grasses he could find and gathered some fine, ripe strawberries. By and by Nanny heard him puffing and blowing as he tugged these goodies up on the door step. She poked her head out of the door to see what was going on. When she saw these goodies she smiled.

"Did your bring all these for me, Danny?" she asked.

"No — No-o," said Danny, "I brought them for the babies."

How Nanny did laugh! "Why, you great goose!" she cried, "they can't eat those things yet. They haven't any teeth and all they want is milk. But I'm very hungry myself, and so if you don't mind I'll eat them." And she did.

MOST CASES OF RINGWORM OF THE FEET CAN BE CURED BY SULPHUR AND SALICYLIC ACID OINTMENTS

While ringworm of the feet has apparently always been a source of annoyance to a certain percentage of people there is no question but that it is more common today than ever before.

About three years ago, Drs. E. D. Osborne, E. D. Putnam and R. J. Rickloff, Buffalo, recorded their great success in treating ringworm of the feet with a 1 per cent solution of sodium hypochlorite. The individuals walk through rubber pans filled with this solution, or through wells built in the floor for this purpose. The number of cases of ringworm in the Buffalo high schools has dropped over 50 per cent by this method.

These physicians recommend that after the acute stage of the eruption has passed, the use of a 2 per cent sulphur precipitate ointment, or a 3 per cent salicylic acid ointment be used at night two or three times a week, combined with the use during the day of a dusting powder containing 30 per cent tannic acid and 30 per cent boric acid. The feet should be carefully washed and dried each day before applying the powder.

Some skin specialists record excellent results with a single treatment by X-rays, and others find that a half dozen treatments are necessary to clear up some cases.

Whitfield's ointment, while curing many old or chronic cases, seems to be too strong in some early cases and causes further inflammation. This is not a proprietary or patented preparation, and your druggist can make it up for you if the milder preparations are not effective. It contains thirty grains of benzoric acid, twenty-four grains of salicylic acid, one-half ounce of linseed oil and one-half ounce of hydrous wool fat. It is suggested that it be used just two or three nights each week, washing it off in the morning and applying a dusting powder on the feet and in the socks or stockings during the day.

"Shoes may be fumigated by inserting in each a piece of blotting paper on which a teaspoonful of strong formaldehyde solution has been poured. They should be wrapped up tightly in paper, left for at least twenty-four hours, and then aired thoroughly before being worn."

Fortunately, although ringworm of the feet is very common, it is not severe enough to require any treatment in most cases. Even the severe cases can generally be cured by the use of the 2 per cent sulphur precipitate, or the 3 per cent salicylic acid ointments applied every night or every second night.

CIVIL SERVICE PICNIC PLANNED

Staffs of Provincial Government Will Spend Holiday at Deep Cove on Saturday

Members of the Provincial Civil Service from all departments will enjoy their second annual outing at Deep Cove on Saturday, under the auspices of the Civil Service Sports Club, Aubrey Walls, vice-president of the organization, said yesterday. An excellent programme of sports, dancing and other entertainment has been arranged for the picnic, which was inaugurated last year with success.

Civil servants will leave the city by special buses for the scene, returning about 10 p.m. Field and track events, baseball, swimming and other entertainment are planned for the afternoon, to be followed by dancing in the evening.

As provincial offices close at noon on Saturday, it is expected that there will be a large turnout for the picnic, especially if the present good weather holds. A handsome prize list has been assembled for the many competitive events.

CHILDHOOD

All minds, even the dullest, remember the days of their childhood; but all cannot bring back the indescribable brightness of that blessed season.—Washington Irving.

GENERATIONS OF MOTHERS

This young mother is not alone in being thankful for Borden's. For 79 years, during four generations of babies, millions of mothers have trusted in the name of Borden for the safest purest milk possible. That trust has never been betrayed. Borden Milks have never been surpassed in quality.

Nowadays doctors prescribe Borden's St. Charles, the better irradiated evaporated milk, for infant feeding. No wonder, for back of every tin is 79 years of pioneering better milk for babies. Freshness and purity are safeguarded by the most rigid tests in all the dairy industry.

St. Charles Milk is extra-fresh, extra-good and more easily digested . . . kinder to tiny stomachs. It is irradiated for extra Sunshine Vitamin D to help build the sound teeth and attractive well-shaped bodies that all mothers desire for their babies.
